ONTARIO 'GATOR GAMBLES ON LOVE

Wrestler Tuffy Sees 'Monster'

NEW HAMBURG, Ont. (CP)—Tuffy the wrestler saw Nithy the Monster today. Nithy aka-daddled.

Tuffy—Tuffy Truesdale who makes a living wrestling alligators—said he caught a glimpse of the "monster" as he stood on the banks of the Nith River with Police Chief George Thomas and four captive alligators.

It was the first time anyone has reported seeing Nithy, whose tracks near the river bank have been sending shivers down the spines of New Hamburg residents for weeks.

Tuffy says Nithy probably is an alligator. That's why he brought along his four 'gators in the hope of luring Nithy into captivity.

Tuffy's alligators, supposed to excite the "monster" with grunts and entice it to the river bank, were "restless" today because Nithy was around.

Chief Thomas said he is sure the pair of eyes he saw in the river were those of Nithy. He saw Nithy's body too. "It was about four feet long."

The chief said tracks were sighted on the bank this morning and added:

"Tuffy says those tracks are an alligator's, and no creature would come as close to Tuffy's if they weren't alligators.

"I think we might have caught him but one fellow, one of Tuffy's three helpers, got a bit excited and yelled. That may have scared him."

Tuffy and his men set up camp around the river bank, a few hundred yards west of here, last week. Their four 'gators are chained to trees and have enough room to roam along the banks and into the water.

Officials at Impasse On Leave for Wright

Problem of Clerk-MLA Plagues City Hall

By AILEEN CAMPBELL

The dispute as to whether newly-elected Victoria MLA Percy Wright can serve in the Legislature and still hold his $4,200-a-year job as assistant city clerk appeared today to have reached an impasse.

After Mayor Claude Harrison, in a letter to Mr. Wright Thursday said the city solicitor ruled it was not legally possible for the city to grant leave of absence for Mr. Wright to attend the Legislative session next month, city hall sources said this was tantamount to an ultimatum to the new MLA to choose between his member's job and his permanent city hall employment.

DECLINES COMMENT

Mr. Wright declined to say whether he regards this as his position, or whether he will appeal to City Council to over-ride the ruling of the mayor and his advisers, City Solicitor Arthur Patton and City Manager Cecil Wyatt.

"I am not pressing the council," was Mr. Wright's only comment.

Unless a further move is made in the meantime the issue may remain unsolved until September 15 when Mr. Wright will decide to attend the opening of the Legislature or to attend to his City Hall duties.

For a session of the Legislature the MLAs get a $3,000 indemnity.

An absence of authority to grant the requested leave rather than a prohibition appears in City Solicitor Patton's report to Mr. Wyatt.

NO AUTHORITY

Mr. Patton said he had searched the Municipal Act and the Civic Service By-law and was "unable to find any authority whereby leave of absence for a person to take another job and accept remuneration is authorized in any manner whatsoever."

The only statute referred to was Section 58, sub-section (3) of the Municipal Act, which authorizes council to make, alter or repeal by-laws "for regulating the appointment and removal of its officers and employees, and the duties, conduct and remuneration of such officers and employees, etc."

"Leave of absence" however is covered in the civic service by-law No. 3396. Section 12 reads:

"Any employee desiring leave of absence without pay shall be granted such leave in so far as the regular operation of the department will permit, provided reasonable notice is given to the head of the department. Such leave of absence shall not exceed what, in the opinion of the municipal manager, is a reasonable period of time."

Frank Hunter, city clerk and Mr. Wright's department head, recommended leave be granted. He said he opposed the principle of civic employees running for office but since council gave its approval on request of the mayor April 23, knowing Mr. Wright might be elected, it should grant him leave to take his seat.

The mayor in his letter asked council to "grant its approval to Mr. Wright's participation as

27 DAYS LOST IN NORTHLAND, YOUTH ALIVE

THE PAS, Man. (CP)—An 18-year-old youth lost in the dense, mosquito-infested bush of northwestern Manitoba for 27 days has been found alive.

The youth, Donald Buck, was found today by game guardian H. Sanderson in the Davidson Portage area, 60 miles east of The Pas. He wandered away from a party of six digging seneca roots July 25 and disappeared into the wilderness. Official search was abandoned about two weeks ago.

Sugar Fortune Heir Beats Up Actress Wife

NEWPORT BEACH, Calif. (UP)—Former actress Kay Williams was reported in serious condition today as the result of a savage beating allegedly at the hands of her former husband, sugar fortune heir Adolph B. Spreckels II.

Spreckels, 41, was arrested Thursday on charges of felonious assault with intent to do bodily harm shortly after Miss Williams was taken to Presbyterian Hospital with possible broken ribs, head injuries and severe bruising on her arms and legs. Film actress Dorothy Lamour was listed as a key witness on the complaint against the millionaire.

Police said the alleged fight began early Thursday when Miss Williams went to Spreckels' home to visit their two children, Joan, 2½, and Adolph III, 4. She has custody of the children, but at the time, they were visiting their father.

Police said the sugar heir was accused of knocking down his ex-wife and then taking off her shoe and beating her on the head "so hard he broke the heel off." Spreckels weighs 190 pounds, Miss Williams 120.

NOT TREATED BRUTALLY

Canucks Mum on PW Experiences

VANCOUVER (BUP)—Two Canadian soldiers freed by the Communists under the Korean truce returned from the Far East early today and reported they had been held in solitary confinement after capture and forced to attend Red indoctrination classes.

Canadian army intelligence officers, however, all but "gagged" Gnr. Orval Jenkins of Hamilton and Toronto and Pte. Thomas Rothwell of Dundas, Ont., when reporters asked whether any Canadians had fallen for the Communist line and remained in North Korea.

The question was put to Gnr. Jenkins and, after a glance at the intelligence officers who attended the interview, replied: "I don't think I'm allowed to answer that question."

Both ex-prisoners said their solitary confinement was an ordeal but said they had not been treated brutally.

They said other Allied captives received "more severe

TRIUMPHANT SHAH ARRIVES IN IRAQ

Tehran Decked Gaily;
Mossadegh Lonely

BAGHDAD, Iraq (UP)—Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi of Iran arrived from Rome in a chartered airliner today and prepared to make his triumphal entry to Tehran tomorrow after his brief exile.

Iraqi Crown Prince Abdullah led a welcoming party of officials when the silver-blue Royal Dutch Constellation landed after its 1,659-mile flight from Rome's Ciampino airport.

The shah stood rigid at attention while an Iraqi band played his country's national anthem.

AWAITS TRIAL

TEHRAN, Iran (UP)—Lonely old Mohammed Mossadegh, ousted as premier by the shah's supporters, languished in his pink pajamas and bathrobe in a suite in the Officers' Club awaiting possible trial for treason.

Premier Gen. Fazollah Zahedi was in firm control and his tanks and troops stood guard at street corners in Tehran and throughout the country.

French Workers Pour Back as Strike Ends

PARIS (UP)—The united front of French labor, which for 17 days had defied the economic reforms program of Premier Joseph Laniel with a crippling series of nation-wide strikes, cracked wide open today.

Laborers, by the tens of thousands, began streaming back to work in nationalized industries and civil services in defiance of Communist pleas for a continuation of the work stoppages enforced by 2,000,000 workers. At their peak, last week, the strikes affected 4,000,000 men.

The collapse of the strike followed an agreement, reached at dawn today, between non-Communist union leaders and representatives of Premier Laniel's cabinet.

Communist union bosses shouted "sell-out," but their voices were ignored.

Industries outside the government sphere—metallurgical, textile, chemical and building—were still crippled to varying degrees by slowdowns and token strikes.

Observers said the agreement reached Thursday night might be the basis for a general settlement that would bring all

New Sultan Takes Over Morocco

RABAT, French Morocco (UP)—Morocco's snuff-taking new pro-French sultan formally took the throne today in the ancient religious capital of Fez before more than 1,000 Moroccan and French notables.

New Sultan Sidi Mohammed Moulay Ben Araf, 64, a wealthy scholarly landowner who enjoys taking snuff, received homage first at the dazzling mosque and palace in Marrakech, where he led prayers of the Moslem faithful in Morocco's biggest religious festival, Aid-El-Kebr.

Then he went to Fez, where he was formally enthroned.

France, amid the festivities, put on an overwhelming show of strength to discourage threatened riots by the nationalist supporters of deposed Sultan Sidi Mohammed Ben Youssef.

Gay, Smiling Princess Marks 23rd Birthday

BALLATER, Scotland (UP)—A radiant Princess Margaret received a spray of white orchids for her 23rd birthday today but kept secret the name of her admirer.

The box of orchids was among many packages that arrived for the princess at Balmoral Castle. She was reported smiling and happy after receiving gifts and congratulations.

Meanwhile in Brussels, handsome Group-Capt. Peter Townsend "celebrated" the birthday of Princess Margaret by lunching alone in a small Brussels hotel.

The war ace whose name has been linked romantically with that of the princess was "not available for comment" at the British embassy where he is now air attaché.

Other embassy officials said they did not know whether Townsend had sent Margaret a present or birthday greetings.

13 Canadians Gain Freedom At PW Exchange

3 Repatriates
Listed as Wounded

PANMUNJOM, Korea (BUP)—Thirteen Canadian soldiers, three of them sick and wounded, will be freed Saturday (tonight, EDT) in the prisoner exchange, the Communists announced today.

A breakdown of the 437 Allied captives to be sent through Freedom Gate said the sick and wounded would be returned at 5 p.m. PDT, and the others at 6:45 p.m. PDT.

Canadian army officers in this buffer zone village were surprised by the announcement since it gave the lie to an earlier Red claim that only 14 Canadians were being held prisoner. Three Canucks already have been freed in the exchange.

The Reds offered no explanation for the discrepancy in their count on Canadian prisoners. Army officers here eagerly awaited the return of the 13 tomorrow. They planned to question them immediately on whether any other Canadians were known to be in Red camps.

PANMUNJOM (AP)—With shouts of "whoopie" and dances of joy the largest group of American war prisoners yet released came back from Red captivity today on the 17th day of Operation Big Switch.

One soldier called out that all the 150 Americans being repatriated today were from Camp 1 for "incorrigibles" at Chongson, near the Yalu river boundary of Manchuria.

Besides the Americans the Reds also released 300 South Koreans including Col. Lim Ik Soon. He was the highest ranking officer yet repatriated by the Reds.

ABE YANOFSKY

Yanofsky U.K. Chess Champion

HASTINGS, Eng. (CP)—Winnipeg's Abe Yanofsky, former Canadian champion, today headed into the last round of the British chess championship with the title firmly in his grasp—the first Canadian ever to win the tournament.

Yanofsky sails for home Tuesday and will go direct to Winnipeg, where he has already entered the Canadian championships, to be played there next month. Earlier this year, he completed a two-year post-graduate law course at Oxford, topping a class of 27 and obtaining his bachelor of law degree.

$25,000 Air Hunt Intensified for Missing Five

KETCHIKAN, Alaska (CP)—Military planes from the United States and Canada and civilian pilots, who were spurred on by the promise of a $25,000 reward, took to the air again today on the fourth day of a search for a New Mexico oilman and four others missing since Monday on a flight to Bellingham, Wash.

The coast guard said 23 military planes plus civilian fliers who were after the reward offered by Hall's business associates were slated to take part in the search today.

'SO WHAT?' SAY NEWSPAPERS

Kinsey Work Gets Mixed Reaction

Newspaper comment on Dr. Alfred Kinsey's findings on the sex lives of American women ranges from a bored "So What" in Paris to the London Daily Mail's dry observation "sex is undoubtedly here to stay."

Newspapers throughout the western world with some exceptions have given the new book space varying from page one leads to single column inches on the inside pages.

In the United States it has received the greatest news prominence ever to greet a new book. The same can be said for Canada and Great Britain. Only in France has the reception been one of base amusement.

Sample comment:

UNITED STATES

New York Herald Tribune—The conclusions of a scientific work painstakingly and distastefully carried out deserve to be presented in a like spirit to the public. . . Kinsey and his associates, whatever else they have done, have not shown that moral standards are unnecessary or that the happy individual is the one who responds to every lust and vagrant desire.

Chicago Tribune—The report should not be taken too seriously as the methods used in collecting the data have been questioned and findings do not represent actions of all women.

Washington Daily News—Kinsey makes sex dull.

San Francisco News—We have decided not to publish these book reviews . . . they are not in our opinion proper literature to be broadcast to the im-

180 Rioting Convicts Held At Gunpoint

MONROE, Wash. (UP)—Wary guards and state police held 180 rebellious convicts at gunpoint today in the state reformatory ballpark where they staged a fiery riot Friday night in which one prisoner was killed and three were wounded.

Officials hoped to herd the prisoners back to their cells when they got "tired and hungry enough" to give up their demonstration. The inmates set fire to a dozen wooden buildings Friday night in what reformatory superintendent Paul Squires described as an apparent display of resentment over the treatment of a negro prisoner.

More than 200 guards and peace officers opened fire on the swarm of prisoners in the ballpark Friday night. One inmate was killed and two were wounded by gunfire, and another convict received a head wound in the melee.

Killed by a bullet through the head was Walter Thomas Lyshall, 22, of Seattle. Glenn M. Anderson, 23, also of Seattle, was shot through the head and his condition was critical.

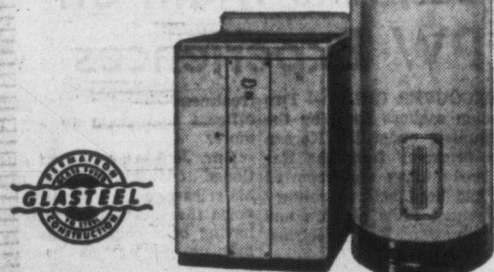

The guards opened fire when the rioters rushed the main yard gate at about 10 p.m. After the shooting during the attempted rush on the gate, the activity died down, and the rioters huddled together in the ball park.

Prison officials decided to leave them there until, as one guard put it, "they get tired and hungry enough to go in."

RCMP Continue Probe Of Polygamy in B.C.

RCMP headquarters confirmed here today that reported polygamy at Lister, B.C., is under continuing investigation.

The police said that action will be taken under the Criminal Code if investigators find evidence of illegal plural marriage.

The RCMP disclosure came on the heels of a British United Press report from R. Scott Zimmerman, Edmonton, head of the Mormon Church in western Canada, that he had excommunicated 10 Mormons living at Lister, near Creston, for "abandonment of the faith."

The Mounties said they had been making their inquiry for the past month. Earlier, they had given Creston Mormons a clean slate, but it was believed this was done to give any polygamists a false sense of security, and to facilitate the investigation.

The church leader said that he and other officials had been investigating for the last 14 months conditions at the small B.C. community.

But the excommunicated members weren't tried on charges of polygamy, he said. The church confined its investigation to charges of disbelief in Mormon doctrines.

They had followed the teachings of a previously-excommunicated member who was ousted from the church for belief in polygamy. Instead of paying to the church their tithes—one-tenth of their annual income—they turned them over to their unidentified leader.

Mr. Zimmerman presided at church trials in Creston, and persons under investigation were invited to attend. He said they did not testify directly on polygamy. The church head indicated this was not too pertinent, since men and women could lead a common-law life together without breaking civil law.

They had followed the teachings of a previously-excommunicated member who was ousted from the church for belief in polygamy. Instead of paying to the church their tithes—one-tenth of their annual income—they turned them over to their unidentified leader.

Mr. Zimmerman presided at church trials in Creston, and persons under investigation were invited to attend. He said they did not testify directly on polygamy. The church head indicated this was not too pertinent, since men and women could lead a common-law life together without breaking civil law.

POLIO DEATH TOLL REACHES 79 IN CANADA

Sask. Hardest Hit
With 21 Victims
By CANADIAN PRESS

Polio has killed 79 persons in Canada so far this year.

It has struck hardest at Saskatchewan, Manitoba and Ontario. A Canadian Press survey today showed that 60 persons have died in those provinces alone. The situation is so bad in Winnipeg that schools will be closed an extra two weeks this summer.

Saskatchewan has had 21 deaths, highest in the country; Ontario has had 20 deaths and Manitoba 19. Quebec, with its large population, has had only one fatal instance of the disease. B.C. has had seven deaths, Alberta nine, Newfoundland two. There have been no deaths in the Maritimes.

In Calgary, health officials say the disease has reached epidemic proportions for the second straight year. There have been six deaths this year in 93 cases from the district. Last year the area had 113 cases at this date.

The disease has killed many more persons from Saskatchewan to Ontario this year than last, although it is less serious in British Columbia and Alberta.

Lumber Strike Averted When IWA Rate Met

VANCOUVER (CP) — Marginal lumber operators who say increased costs may force them out of business agreed Thursday night, on the eve of a strike vote, to sign a $1.49-an-hour contract with their employees.

The contract, increasing wages by 14 cents an hour, is the same as the one signed earlier by the 126 other coastal British Columbia lumber operators represented by Forest Industrial Relations, Ltd.

A strike vote among 1,500 members of the International Woodworkers of America (CIO) (CCL), who work in the 22 marginal operations, was scheduled to be held today and Monday.

However, a statement issued by John Billings, FIR manager, said: "For the sake of harmony in the industry and in order to avoid interruption of production, the operators told IWA officials they would reluctantly accept the terms of the conciliation board's recommendation on wages."

In all, 32,000 woodworkers were involved in the dispute which extended through spring and summer. The conciliation board's recommendation called for a straight increase of five cents an hour plus incorporation of a nine-cent cost-of-living bonus into the wage scale. The old rate was $1.35 an hour.

Originally 33 operators rejected the board's recommendation. Six signed when the application for a strike vote was announced, and up to Thursday five more had signed.

New Comedy Opens Monday At the Totem

The popular American comedy, "For Love or Money," will open at the Totem Theatre on Monday.

Written by F. Hugh Herbert, the man who wrote the movie, "The Moon Is Blue," the new show is expected to rival this week's successful run of the saucy "Gigi," which has been well received by Victorians during the first week of Totem production here.

Next week's run will change locale from France to New York. The new play will deal with the amusing complications one feminine overnight visitor can cause in the life of a Broadway stage star.

Playing the role of the Broadway actor will be Sam Payne. Norma Macmillan plays opposite.

Supporting them will be Muriel Ontkean, portraying a sharp-tongued Broadway actress; Thor Arngren, who makes his debut in an on-stage role as a wolfish young neighbor; Verlie Cooter, who played Grandmere in "Gigi"; Jack Dray, Kitty Dutcher and John Richards.

Guelph Riots Under Study

GUELPH, Ont. (CP) — A Legislature committee studied charges today that restrictions on strapping contributed to riots at the Guelph reformatory in July, 1952.

Reformatory officials told the committee, at the first open hearing into the riots, which caused $85,000 damage, that prisoners became arrogant, rebellious and "sneered in our faces" when they learned they couldn't be strapped without permission from Toronto.

They said other factors contributing to the riots were overcrowding, shortage of staff and lack of segregation of hardened criminals.

Both officials and guards at the reformatory appeared before the select committee on reform institutions in the first day of its hearing Thursday.

Government Responsibility

THE RESPONSIBILITIES OF the defeated Conservative opposition in the new Parliament, as remarked here the other day, are heavy. The responsibilities of the government are heavier.

The government need not think and surely is too wise to think that because it won slightly less than half the popular vote all its policies and acts of administration have been approved by the Canadian people.

Assuming that nearly half the people approved it in every particular—an optimistic assumption—more than half voted against it in complete disapproval. In a four-cornered election the government's vote was indeed an impressive mandate which we believe it had earned. But obviously a large part of the public is highly critical of some phases of its administration.

There can be no doubt, for example, that most Canadians were disturbed by the Petawawa affair, even though it was grossly exaggerated and distorted by the opposition and in the end probably damaged the opposition more than the government. It is to be hoped the government has learned a salutary lesson and will redouble its efforts to eliminate waste in the defense program.

Doubtless also, the people suspect the government of extravagance, even if they refuse to believe the opposition's plans of economy. In any case, the need for economy is now more urgent than it has been at any time since the war.

During the last fiscal year the government's accounts showed no significant surplus. The technical surplus of only $24 millions may indeed have disguised a real deficit, since the old age pension fund was "borrowing" heavily from the treasury and may never repay these "loans." This year the government may incur a substantial deficit, as Mr. Abbott fears and as the figures for the first quarter strongly indicate.

How is such a deficit to be met if it occurs? A government which has courageously accumulated surpluses to reduce debt, in the face of bitter Conservative opposition, assuredly will not wish to resort to borrowing to pay its current bills. And an increase in taxes, barring some dangerous change in the international situation, is unthinkable. A reduction in revenues, therefore, must be met by reduced expenditure. The government must economize.

The opposition was rejected at the polls when it advocated economy, but not because it advocated economy.

It was rejected because, among other things, it proposed to cancel out all possible economies by huge extra expenditures. The electors saw through those promises but they certainly were uneasy about the government's spending and we suspect the government itself is uneasy, especially after reading the ledger of recent months.

For the most part the government can safely continue the sound policies that have brought Canada unprecedented prosperity and have been endorsed at the polls. It cannot safely ignore the widespread public demand for more careful spending merely because the Conservatives' promises were impossible.

Mr. Mayhew and Mr. Dulles

AS CANADIAN AMBASSADOR to Japan Mr. Mayhew's first job is to assist the negotiation of a new Canadian-Japanese trade treaty. What progress he is making the public has no means of knowing, since negotiations of this sort must be conducted privately at the bargaining table. But Mr. Mayhew, in a candid public statement, leaves no doubt about his own views.

The trade between Canada and Japan, he said at Ottawa a few days ago, must be brought into approximate balance. At the moment it is so one-sided that Japan cannot long support it.

Last year, for example, Mr. Mayhew says, Canada sold Japan $115,000,000 worth of goods and bought from Japan only $12,000,000. Canada thus enjoyed a so-called "favorable" balance of almost ten to one. For Japan it is too unfavorable to continue, simply because Japan cannot presently earn enough dollars, by sales here, to pay for our goods in the existing volume. If we wish to maintain our present Japanese market—our fourth foreign market and one capable of huge expansion—we must buy more from Japan. That is the purpose of the trade treaty now under negotiation.

To Japan, as Mr. Mayhew adds, foreign trade is even more important than it is to Canada because Japan must import not only the raw materials of industry but a large part of its foodstuffs. They can be paid for only in exports. If the western world refuses to buy these exports, when they are offered at satisfactory prices, it will lose its Japanese markets, but the ultimate political loss is likely to be much more serious than economic. For if Japan cannot trade with the free world it will trade elsewhere and make its future friends among the enemies of freedom.

Recently Mr. Dulles visited Tokyo and complained to the Japanese government about the slow pace of its rearmament. Understandably, the Japanese must be puzzled when a new constitution, imposed on them by the United States, absolutely forbade any rearmament and when, a few years later, they are criticized for not rearming fast enough. That irony and contradiction is one of the many prices which must be paid for the cold war.

But if the United States wishes to make Japan militarily strong, as an outpost of freedom on the edge of the communist world, that strength must be based on a strong economy and in Japan's case economic strength depends on abundant trade.

Mr. Dulles would be in a much better position, in dealing with Japan, if he could offer the kind of trade treaty which Canada is now negotiating. He is prevented from offering it, for the present anyway, by the decision of his government to postpone all decisive action on trade for a year.

Meanwhile Canada, under no such restraint, can set a useful example which its neighbor may follow a little later on. For the most urgent military, political and economic reasons, therefore, it is to be hoped that the Canadian-Japanese treaty will be pressed to a conclusion with a minimum of delay. That is evidently Mr. Mayhew's wish and intention.

Our Other Language

THE PETERBOROUGH EXAMINER rightly compliments Mr. Drew on his study of the French language. Only those who have tried to master it will realize how successful he has been when he could address the electors of Quebec, during the recent election campaign, in their own tongue. It may be some time before he equals Mr. St. Laurent's fluency in both languages, with no trace of any accent from either, but Mr. Drew has done much better than most of our English-speaking political leaders. Mr. Mackenzie King, for example, though he could always command the support of Quebec, could never learn to address it in anything but English.

The excellent precedent set by Mr. Drew, The Peterborough Examiner thinks, will compel all successful party leaders of the future to learn both our national languages.

"Formerly," it says, "it was good enough that each party should have a senior member whose native tongue was French. A merging of industry and commerce and the arts and sciences has led to an essential merging of politics. Party leadership henceforth must be as bilingual as Canada has become, expressing in their tongue the new unity which has gradually emerged."

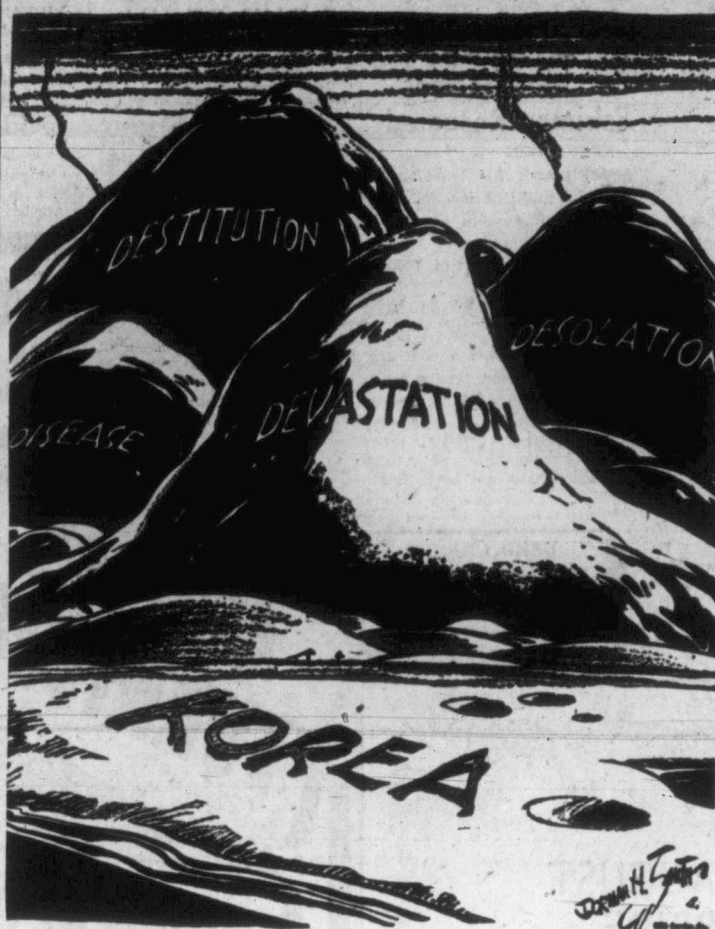

But why should it be necessary for an industrious man like Mr. Drew to study French privately in his middle age? All or most of the high schools of the nation, outside Quebec, teach the French language. Our boys and girls spend several years studying it laboriously out of textbooks and, on graduation, can usually read and even write French reasonably well. Yet they cannot speak it or understand it when they go to Quebec or to France.

As everyone with a schoolboy knowledge of French knows, the language, taken off paper, is another matter entirely. Its sound becomes incomprehensible. Clearly we are teaching French in our schools the wrong way—cramming our children with syntax and irregular verbs and leaving them, at the end, as ignorant of French speech as ever. Once out of school they promptly forget a subject which never really interested or touched them. The French Canadians are much more successful. Most of them can speak enough English to get along outside their own province.

Communication between its two major races being one of the most important problems in Canada, it is high time that our educational authorities made a new approach to the French language. They should teach it as a language, not as a kind of bloodless cross-word puzzle. And throughout English-speaking Canada it would be useful to employ, for the true teaching of French, Canadian teachers from Quebec, who understand its idiomatic usage as few of our present teachers do.

And if what they like best is to become the un-murmuring dupes and slaves of some male dictator of fashions, why, let them. Germans like being told what to do. So do Japanese. In the matter of clothes, women like being rather German-Japanese. And if therein lies their truest happiness, we are lucky to have them happy. It is our whole duty to make them happy, especially in their less strenuous whims, for only thus can we be happy too.

But I laugh a little at the suggestion that short dresses are a new brain-wave of Monsieur Dior. Or new since 1927 or whenever the last era of cloth-saving was. For I have just been looking at some pictures taken many months ago in a big Copenhagen store, and the clerks and customers are nearly all wearing skirts that come little below their knees. Nor are they dressed for folk-dancing or anything out of the way. They are in street-and-business clothes.

AS FOR the Highlanders, I don't think the length of kilt changes at all. How much brighter would life in the rainy Highlands be, and how much better business they would have in Edinburgh, if the length of the kilt kept going up and down like an elevator or the stock market, with the hem now going down to the top of the white spats, and now creeping up to the middle of the thigh. Mid-thigh, where American shorts give up the struggle. (I once heard an American Scoutmaster, leading a Canadian troop, making public fun of his boys for wearing shorts of a military pattern, instead of looking like something escaped from a girls' badminton club.) But no, the kilt stays where it belongs. That is to say, with the hem just touching the floor when you stand erect on your knees. The weavers' profit comes from the abundant pleats, not from a fickle length.

FANCY THAT

IN THE Popular Medicine column of a Mainland paper I was reading about some common fallacies and myths now exploded. For example, the learned leech explained that frogs do not cause warts, and so on. He went on to say that "goose pimples" are not caused by geese! Who ever said they were? When the skin is rough and bristling from cold or fear, it looks like a plucked goose, that's all, and we refer to it metaphorically as gooseflesh. I shall now call a doctor in to prove that you don't catch shingles from lying on a wooden roof; neither have shingles anything to do with the roof of your mouth; and neither is a man with the shakes always a roofer. You don't catch pals from going round with too many pals. Dropsy isn't caused by falling off roofs while you have the shingles or shakes. Amazing.

AUTO COURT

IN A REVIEW of Consuelo Vanderbilt's autobiography, I see that she lives or lived in a wonderful chateau in Normandy named St. Georges-Motel. So there really is a word MOTEL, after all. Well, it has offended me for 20 years, and there it was on the map all the time. Still, I bet the motel in Normandy has better accommodation and more exclusive guests than the last few motels I stayed at in B.C., even though it may not have four stars outside it and a permanent sign saying NO VACANCY. Clean pillows and everything. O boy!

Talking of clean linen, my brother Tom was once sitting by a streetcar window, when he was four or five, and the streetcar and an ambulance alongside it stopped at an intersection. Staring into the ambulance at its freshly prepared cot, Tom wished he could have a drowsy ride in it. And he said to my mother in a loud and fervent voice, "My, I wish I had a nice little, white little, CLEAN little bed." The car was full, and every passenger gave my mother a stare that was contemptuous, pitying, scornful, shocked, or hostile. Imagine keeping nice little boys in dirty beds. My mother got off at the next stop. Not to speak to Tom, though. She didn't speak to him for the rest of the morning.

SLOW BUT SURE

WHILE looking through a book of formulae for something else, I ran across a sure-fire precaution against seasickness. All you do is this. For six or eight weeks before the voyage, you take two or three grams of potassium bromide daily, in plain water or soda water as suits your fancy. And in barely a couple of months you are ready to put to sea; think of that. During the actual voyage you should breathe deeply and also wear a tight bandage around the abdomen, but the main thing is the steady intake of the old bromide well in advance.

I have known lots of people getting ready for a trip who'd have been miles better for a few bromides. All in a tizzy, they were. Bags packed weeks in advance, useless clothing bought and then exchanged for impossible clothing, a constant exchange of worried views with the neighbors on what makes the best cabin . . . if your cabin is down near the waterline you drown quicker, but if it is up in the air it rolls through a longer arc, oh dear, oh dear, it is all very difficult. Do you think we should change the cabin a third time or would the agent be cross? Yes, bromides are the very thing. A few slugs of it might help the neighbors, too . . . it's they who have to do all the listening.

Franco-American Clash Due?

BY STEWART ALSOP, From Paris

A GREAT crisis, capable of shaking the Western Alliance to its roots, seems to be shaping up here. A head-on clash between France and the United States on two vital issues—the Indo-Chinese war and the European army—now appears almost inevitable.

One of these two issues, the Indo-Chinese war may well present the most dangerous possibilities. This is true, paradoxically, despite the fact that the French government has communicated to Washington the most hopeful program yet put forward for bringing the war to a successful conclusion. This plan, jointly conceived by Prime Minister Joseph Laniel and General Henri Navarre, French commander in Indo-China, can be reliably outlined as follows:

First, for their part, the French promise to send nine fresh battalions of troops from metropolitan France, to strengthen the existing French forces in Indo-China. Gen. Navarre originally asked for twelve battalions—about 20,000 men in all. But after a good look at the bare French military cupboard, Laniel countered with an offer of nine battalions, which Navarre accepted as a reasonable minimum.

INDO-CHINA INDEPENDENCE

Second, the French government is ready at last to offer genuine, rather than mere paper independence to the associated states of Indo-China. The Laniel-Navarre plan calls for actually turning over power from French to Indo-Chinese officials, as rapidly as possible, in order to make independence real and visible to the Indo-Chinese.

Third, the French promise to make a really serious effort to build a genuinely independent Viet Namese nationalist, anti-Communist army in Indo-China, modelled on the RoK army in Southern Korea. The theory is that such an army, plus the strengthened French army, will be able to defeat decisively the Communist armies in Indo-China, short of direct Chinese Communist intervention, within two years or less. Thereafter, the evacuation of the French army from Indo-China can begin.

So much for the French part of the bargain. The American part involves paying the cost of creating the nationalist Viet Nam army, which the French, of course, cannot possibly afford to do.

The best guesses on the amount involved range between $300 and $400 million. This is over and above the $400 million recently appropriated for Indo-China by Congress. And the fact might as well be faced that this plan is a last chance—and not a very good chance at that.

Laniel must be given credit for extraordinary political courage for proposing this plan to Washington in the first place. He has the legal power—for the time being—to send more troops to Indo-China, but such a move will be explosively unpopular. French colonial and economic interests, moreover, have successfully opposed for years a grant of genuine independence to Indo-China.

Laniel's right-wing government is partly dependent on such interests. And in any event, the growing shakiness of Laniel's position has been amply demonstrated by the crippling strikes here, and by the threatened recall of the parliament. Most observers believe that the Laniel government is not long for this world. The plain fact is that the Laniel-Navarre plan flies straight in the face of the mounting tide of sentiment in France for getting out of Indo-China, on the basis of almost any conceivable face-saving device.

AMERICAN STAND

American leaders, most notably President Eisenhower himself, are convinced with good reason that Indo-China simply cannot be allowed to fall. But the American government is also determined not to send American troops to Indo-China.

In such circumstances, one does not have to be a Cassandra to foresee the possibility of a head-on clash between France and the United States. The Indo-Chinese problem is not the only issue, moreover, which can bring on such a clash.

As Our Readers See It

OF THE BLOOD

It is curious that the name of the Duke of Gloucester has been not as yet mentioned as the logical person to assume the duties of acting head of state in the event of a Regency.

Surely he, as a Prince of the Blood, and not an outsider, is the natural choice if Princess Margaret should decide to forego her hereditary duties.

NOBLESSE OBLIGE.

NOT A MATTER OF FAITH

Surely the most futile form of human endeavor is writing letters arguing about religion.

For the information of your correspondent (August 19) Kathleen Worthington-Lake, the reason many of us object to Canada sending a representative to the Vatican is nothing to do with which is "the right road to the footstool." It is because we object to totalitarian government in any form.

SIXTY DAYS LATER

I am appalled to notice that within 60 days after the close of the provincial election Premier Bennett and Mr. Gundersen have announced that they have borrowed $7,000,000.

Didn't we have their positive assurance during the election campaign that they never borrowed money but always paid as they went. As a matter of fact didn't they make quite a show about it, indicating consistently that they were reducing the debt.

Is this another exhibition of their about face policy now they are again elected.

POSY FOR 'POSTIE'

In these days when most employees only work a five-day week there is one class that seems to be overlooked and that is the men who deliver our mail.

In all weather, six days a week, with their packs on their backs, they tramp the sidewalks, run up and down verandas steps—often dodging snapping dogs—delivering their mail, unappreciated, except by a few people at Christmas who give them a gift. Whilst the other civil servants seem to have been considered the mailmen seem to have been overlooked. Does that seem fair?

Could not the working time be split up in such a way that only a five-day week need be worked? Would it not be a good time, when the new federal government takes office, to right this wrong and give these men a break? What do you who may read this think?

GLADYS FRASER.

SCHOOLS AND THE FUTURE

The danger signals which threaten today, and may drive nations, including Canada, to desperate measures to insure a future of prosperity, require utmost attention. As Canadians, we have to be prepared to "stand on guard" for Uncle Sam's territory in Alaska. No easy matter. And in addition to that job, we have to join our cousins in pressing out of existence the many divergent notions providing distempers, chiefly political, and liable to get out of hand in emergencies.

One only form of public school education is required. Instruction in all historical affairs require complete uniformity, with battle situations, the glory of kings, and traditional stories excluded. French and English languages could be made optional, and studied jointly. Funds for the support of schools will not be easily subscribed from farm properties, for the reason that income from these sources are subject to many fluctuations. After the age of 16, either boy or girl could receive half time, useful employment. Thus preparing for citizenship or defense, rather than continued childhood.

CIVIL SERVICE HOURS

Since the advent of a five-day week for certain provincial civil servants, hours of duty have been so changed that an already exasperating transportation situation has become worsened, adding also considerably to domestic inconvenience.

Seventy-five minutes for luncheon was allowed formerly because of the time consumed in reaching eating houses and the shopping centre in the city proper, but few employees use city restaurants since the excellent restaurant facilities specially designed and operated for civil servants now forms part of the Parliament Building block.

So that there may be alleviation of traffic and other problems resulting from the change of hours referred to it is suggested the luncheon hour be reduced to 45 minutes and the hours of duty restored to 9 a.m.-5 p.m.

If three quarters of an hour is regarded by some as insufficient for disposal of the midday sandwich it should not be overlooked that an additional break is permitted during the afternoon for refreshment and relaxation.

Introduction of the five-day week is a most desirable innovation, yet a more advantageous result would have been attained by leaving the hours of duty as formerly with a slight adjustment in the lunch hour period.

A simple vote by civil servants may reveal their wishes in respect to the proposal outlined.

STILL PROUD CANADIANS

Gladys Shrapnell and Mr. S. Smith seem to think that to voice an opinion about one's sense of pride in being a Canadian is utterly foolish. If no one is proud of his Canadian citizenship, why is Canada developing more rapidly than any other country in the world today? Why are so many people from other countries making Canada their home if there is nothing to be proud of in this vast northern nation? Surely the consideration of material wealth alone cannot inspire such continued immigration.

Mr. Smith, we presume, was speaking of Russia when he mentioned the nation that "came in and licked the pants off the world's most common enemy in '43." However, the Russian people were not fortunate enough to have the right to vote democratically after the war for a "government for the people" as we here in Canada were privileged to do.

Think again, Gladys Shrapnell and Mr. Smith before you speak one word of detriment against a country so fine and free and democratic as Canada. Count your blessings and realize how lucky you are to be a Canadian.

You have a lot to be thankful for.

INSPIRATION

Often the public forms an idea of inspiration that is quite false, almost a religious notion. Alas! I do not believe that inspiration falls from heaven. I think it rather the result of a profound indolence and of our incapacity to put to work certain forces in ourselves. These unknown forces work deep within us, with the aid of the elements of daily life, its scenes and passions, and, when they burden us and oblige us to conquer the kind of somnolence in which we indulge ourselves like invalids who try to prolong dream and dread resuming contact with reality, in short when the work that makes itself in us and in spite of us demands to be born, we can believe that this work comes to us from beyond and is offered us by the gods. The artist is more slumberous in order that he shall not work. By a thousand ruses he prevents his nocturnal work from coming to the light of day.

Winner of $307,500 Staying With Job

NEW YORK (UP)—A 55-year-old engineer who won $307,500 for solving puzzles said today he planned to keep his $100-a-week job as a water pipe expert for the city of Chicago.

Idle, who has worked hard all his life to support his wife and four children, did not seem bothered by the fact that he would be allowed to keep less than half the total after Uncle Sam takes a tax bite out of the winnings.

The amount left in his bank account will be enough to fill his one major wish—to continue his education.

Idle was told at first he would be able to keep $132,000 of the prize money after taxes. But an internal revenue agent said

YFC to Hold Beacon Hill Park Service

The "Youth for Christ" organization will conduct a gospel service at Cameron Memorial Pavilion in Beacon Hill Park Sunday evening at 7:30.

Bill Bennett, the organization's director for Victoria and Vancouver Island, will be master of ceremonies. The service is the eighth in a series of nine held under the auspices of the local committee of the Christian Businessmen's International Committee.

Rev. Peter Allinger, president and dean of Audio-Visual College, Vancouver, will give the gospel message.

The Nurses' Christian Fellowship Choir will be in attendance. In addition to instrumental items there will be oral solos, duets and quartets and a song service.

A technicolor film, "Twice Convicted," which tells the story of Dr. Fred Garland "from his life of crime to salvation and the Christian way of life," will be shown.

More than 800 attended the service last Sunday which was conducted by Metropolitan United Church.

Idle has worked for 30 years as a junior engineer for Chicago's city water pipe division and enjoyed two hobbies—composing church music and entering contests. Occasionally the latter paid off with prizes like the pair of skis he never used and $25,000 he stashed away for a rainy day.

The slim, diffident man entered the Unicorn Press contest that brought him $307,500 two years ago as part of a purchase plan for a 36-volume Funk and Wagnall's encyclopedia.

With each volume came a set of picture puzzles, which could be worked out by reference to the encyclopedia.

Some 300,000 persons entered the contest which ended last year.

When the puzzles finally were tallied early this year, Unicorn Press found that 25,000 persons had tied for the first prize. To break the tie, the company asked each to submit six original puzzles. Idle spent every minute of his spare time for two weeks on the originals.

He won.

India-Pakistan In Accord on Kashmir Vote

NEW DELHI, India (UP)—The 4,000,000 people of the rich princely state of Kashmir will choose their own governmental future in a plebiscite, it was disclosed today.

The decision to hold a plebiscite was reached after a four-day conference here between Indian Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru and Premier Mohammed Ali of Pakistan.

A joint communique issued after the final meeting showed that India and Pakistan have decided to end their long-standing dispute over Kashmir in this manner, with a third party supervising the vote.

Kashmir has been a thorny issue in Indian-Pakistan relations since Pakistan came into existence with the partition of India six years ago. Troops of both countries have occupied the Himalayan state in recent years.

India and Pakistan have been agreed in principle on a plebiscite for years, but have held different views on the conditions under which it was to be held.

LOCAL PLUM TREE GROWS PEACHES, TOO

Natele Maggiora, 1267 Feltham Road, is a man who likes to grow and graft fruit trees. For example he has a plum tree, which not only has two types of plums growing on it but also two types of peaches.

He does this by grafting and budding.

"The secret of budding," he says, "is to do it either at night or at sundown around the middle of August. Grafting should be done around the end of March or the first part of April."

Mr. Maggiora also owns a cherry tree which bears Bing, Royal Anne and pie cherries. In his orchard are five pecan trees, 20 almond trees and many apricots.

He also grows peanuts, tobacco and sugar cane.

He has been living on the island since 1918 but has only been working on his orchard on Feltham Road for 11 years.

Germans Form New Extreme Right Party

HANNOVER (Reuters)—A new extreme right-wing political party, the National German Socialist Workers party, has been founded in Lower Saxony, the state interior ministry said today.

The party uses the initials NDSAP which are almost the same as the NSDAP of Hitler's Nazi party, standing for National Socialist German Workers party.

Founder of the party is Heinz Telgmann, 33. Interior ministry officials said Telgmann submitted the required 500 signatures to be allowed to run in the federal election Sept. 6.

No details on Telgmann or his party program were available.

Union Workers Threaten To Picket New Churches

TORONTO (BUP)—New city churches built with the help of non-union labor today faced the embarrassing prospect of picket lines.

Sidney Glows Under Lights Saturday Night

Sidney village will have its first street lighting system in operation Saturday evening.

At a special ceremony, chairman of the village commission, Harold Fox, will switch on the 54 lights which have been installed at a cost of nearly $5,500.

The village was "unorganized territory" until last fall when the first administration was elected. Sidney ratepayers welcome the lighting as one of the first advantages of incorporation.

New developments planned include the provision of a sewer system to eliminate the many open drains and ditches.

Rifle Locked Up After 5-Year-Old Nearly Kills Girl

PORT CREDIT, Ont. (BUP)—A .22 calibre rifle which a five-year-old boy used to settle a playground argument was locked up in a police station today where he could never get hold of it.

Four-year-old Donna Harrison escaped death by inches Thursday when a bullet ripped through her sweater between her arm and chest. It barely scratched her body.

Police said the boy ran for his grandfather's rifle after an argument with several children, and chased them down the street. He was found later sitting at an upstairs window with the rifle and a jar of bullets. At least three shots had been fired from the gun.

Harvard Professor Sees McCarthy's End

GENEVA PARK, LAKE COUNTY, Ont. (BUP)—The Korean truce marked "the beginning of the end" for Senator Joseph McCarthy, a Harvard University history professor, said Thursday night.

Professor Arthur M. Schlesinger predicted the Wisconsin senator would become "more and more alien to the mood of the country and more and more reduced to his lunatic fringe" as emotions aroused by the war died down.

Schlesinger condemned the actions of "McCarthy and his imitators" in a speech entitled "The attacks on civil liberties" given at a conference sponsored by the Canadian Institute of Public Affairs and CBC.

He suggested democracies should set up special government departments to protect all phases of civil liberties.

"Even in these short years, McCarthy and his imitators have done grievous damage to the fabric of freedom in my country," he said.

Seguin Will Stand Trial For Murder

ALEXANDRIA, Ont. (BUP)—Henri Joseph Seguin, 28, will stand trial at the fall sittings of the Ontario Supreme Court in Cornwall on a charge of murder arising out of the death last Aug. 16 of Leonard Z. Hurd, Maxville taxi operator.

He was committed Thursday.

The crown presented 23 witnesses at the two-day preliminary hearing, including Douglas McKibben, Hurd's bookkeeper, who testified that a few days before Hurd was shot in one of his cabs, Seguin had suggested the taxi operator could "easily" be hit over the head.

Seguin had sought information from McKibben, he said, about Hurd's practice of carrying the day's taxi receipts in his pocket.

TOO MUCH RAIN RUINS TOWN'S WATER SUPPLY

ROBERT LEE, Tex. (UP)—Drought-stricken residents were out of water Thursday because it rained too much.

The 1,000 residents here for two years have had water trucked in because of lack of rain. Eight inches fell Tuesday night and overflowed the municipal reservoir. The pressure broke the reservoir's outlet pipe.

World Series Next

Yanks, Dodgers All But Home Free

The race for final positions in the major league standings appear to be all over in both circuits except to find out who's going to finish third.

Although there are still five weeks to play, it's mostly just a question of waiting for the World Series—for Brooklyn Dodgers and New York Yankees—and for next year.

The third-place races, however, are close in both leagues. Cleveland Indians hold third in the American League by only half a game over Boston Red Sox. St. Louis Cardinals have a game edge on Philadelphia Phillies in the National.

Except for the third-place battles, at least six games separate the clubs in their present positions in the National League. Only seven games divide the last-place St. Louis Browns from the sixth-place Philadelphia Athletics in the American League, with Detroit Tigers sandwiched in between.

The league-leading Dodgers and Yankees each have a nine-game edge. Brooklyn has 36 games to play, New York 35.

In Thursday's curtailed activity the Dodgers thumped New York Giants 10-0. St. Louis defeated Chicago Cubs 5-3 and Pittsburgh Pirates beat Philadelphia 5-2 in the National League. The Yankees whipped Washington 7-0 and Cleveland bounced Detroit 13-7 in the American.

Carl Erskine, Brooklyn's biggest winner, posted his 15th victory of the season and his second straight four-hit shutout over the stumbling Giants. Erskine didn't walk a man and struck out six. Junior Gilliam, Jackie Robinson and Bobby Morgan hit home runs.

ROBERTS BEATEN

Robin Roberts fell victim to Philadelphia's sieve-like defense. The Phillies committed four errors and four of the Pirates' five runs were unearned. The Yankees' shutout leader, for seven runs in the fourth inning and broke his five-game winning streak. Eddie Lopat, who causes the Senators to play dead at the mere sound of his name, won his 11th straight against Washington.

AUSSIERS NOT PROUD; TAKE DEFEAT NOBLY

MELBOURNE (Reuters) — Australian newspapers, taking a longer look at England's fifth test cricket triumph, seem happy that the "Ashes" have been regained by England.

The Conservative Sydney Morning Herald says editorially today: "Australia has lost the Ashes symbol of world cricket supremacy and the odd thing is that most Australians are genuinely pleased about it. Nineteen years is too long for any country to dominate a game. So long a reign breeds complacency among the victors and a sense of inferiority among the losers, and both are equally bad for cricket."

Gasmen Edge Students In Polio Fund Benefit

The battery of Capital City Gasmen and Chinese Students whipped a couple of third strikes past the dreaded polo strikes Thursday night at Central Park.

City champion Gasmen and semifinalist Students put on the opener of a three-game charity Senior A Softball League series, proceeds ticketed for the Vic Van Isle Kinsmen Club polo fund.

And while the most important factor is the money collected, it was also noted that Gasmen won the first game 4-2.

Gasmen coach Joe Bryant gave his entire roster a workout, and after Bernie Clarkson had unloaded a tremendous three-run home run in the third inning they coasted to a two-hit victory behind four pitchers.

Ab Wiebe started on the hill for the Gasmen and went five innings. Bryant then retired six batters in a row, and brought in Norm Martin to pitch the eighth inning. Ken Gunter finished up to preserve the low-hit win.

Students scored the first run of the game in the second when they picked up their two hits. Quinton Mar singled and scored on a triple by Eddie Lou.

Stan Tenning bumped into trouble in the third and after walking Gus Hilton and Ab Wiebe, Clarkson hit his long home run.

Students made it 3-2 in the fifth inning, but Gasmen scored an insurance run in the last of the sixth on two errors.

Second game of the series will be played Tuesday night at Central Park. A win for Gasmen will give them possession of the cup donated by the Vic Van Isle Kinsmen Club.

City Senior Baseball Finals Open Tonight

Will Farmer Construction continue their winning ways in the Senior Amateur Baseball League finals or will defending champion Eagles suddenly find a way to stop Farmers' domination of the city loop.

The answer to this question will be given in part tonight when Farmers meet Eagles in the first game of a best-of-five series for the league championship at Royal Athletic Park at 6.30.

Farmer's manager, Ed Ash, will place his hopes for a first-game victory on the shoulders of left-handed Lowell Hodges, usually a first baseman.

Hodges, who captured the league batting crown this year, is a fork-baller but has been bothered with a sore arm lately.

Right-handed Paul Beck is a good choice to oppose Hodges on the mound for Eagles. Beck has seen limited action this season, but has looked good in what games he has worked.

Saturday Farmers will host Port Angeles All-Stars in play in the Hart Trophy series. Farmers swept two games at the American city last Saturday and one victory Saturday would give the club the trophy. Games are scheduled for 3 and 6.30.

STRICT SURVEILLANCE TO MARK FINAL EVENT SUNDAY

Ladder Derby Fish-Off Rules

Officials of the Victoria-Saanich Inlet Anglers' Association in charge of Sunday's monster fish-off, culmination of the 10-week annual Ladder Derby, will tolerate no rule violations during the one-day final test. Prizes in the fish-off are worth $3,500.

There will be 515 anglers vying for prizes Sunday and every precaution will be taken to see that each contestant receives the same chance of totting home some of the loot.

Official boats will patrol the derby course, starting at midnight Saturday to see that no boats dip a line until starting time, 6 Sunday morning.

One boat was stopped last year and found to have a line out half an hour before the official starting time. When admonished, the violator blandly claimed, "I was just testing my lure." But he happened to have 200 feet of line out when testing it.

All anglers who weigh in prize-winning fish will be required to sign an affidavit, swearing that he or she has not violated any derby rule. Should it be found later that the statement was falsely signed, the association will be justified in taking stern action.

Derby chairman Andy Anderson has stressed the fact that prizes will be withheld from any winner who refuses to sign the affidavit.

Anderson indicated at a meeting Thursday that the 1953 edition of the derby will result in a handsome profit to the association. Figures were not available. Rules governing Sunday's derby follow:

Only those qualified will be allowed to fish from a boat flying the derby pennant. All pennants must be prominently displayed. (Pennants are issued with derby tickets.) All fish caught must be weighed in.

Only one prize can be won by any contestant. Tackle must be exhibited when fish are weighed in. Contestants must obey official boats which will fly an official pennant. Officials have the right to inspect tackle and boats at any time.

Only one rod and line will be permitted a qualified contestant. Rods must be at least six feet in length. Only one lure will be permitted on each line. In case of a tie for one of the top four prizes, contestants concerned will fish off Aug. 30.

Playoff Phobia Irish Foe Tonight

Sons Here For Third Series Game

Victoria Shamrocks go phobia-hunting tonight.

The league champions take on Nanaimo Native Sons at Memorial Arena in the second game of their Inter-Varsity Lacrosse League best-of-five semifinal series, the round being tied at one victory each.

The Irish won the opening game of the series handsily Monday night, 10-6, but were whipped soundly in Wednesday's second game at Nanaimo, 13-5. A Shamrock victory is vital tonight as the series goes back to Nanaimo Monday night.

Shamrock coach, Red McMillan, was at a loss today to explain the off-color performance of his club in the first two games.

"They were the worst games we have played all season," he said. "I can't put my finger on the reason for the let-down unless it is some kind of playoff phobia. But I am sure we'll come out of it tonight. We have to come out of it. We'd be in bad shape going back to Nanaimo Monday trailing in the series."

Over the last three seasons the Rocks have come by a reputation of being able to win anything but playoff games. They will be out to dispel that theory tonight.

McMillan plans to use the majority of the line-up that won Monday's game, Wednesday's roster having failed to hold the Sons.

Jim Hetherington will be back in goal and his defense partners will be Bill Bamford, Tommy Druce, Bob Monaghan and Bob Anderson. The White-Severson-Larry Booth-Archibald line will be unchanged.

Arnie Ferguson, who was on the bench Wednesday, will return to the second forward line with Sarge Sammartino and Jack Northup. Al Gil, recovered from the groin injury that kept him out of the second game, will be with Norm Coates and Harry Irwin on the third line. Billy Jobb being given a rest.

ON THE OUTDOOR FRONT

With ROY THORSEN

A young Vancouver man who has been target shooting for only a year, and described as a "natural," is in the spotlight on the B.C. trap shooting front.

He is William R. Jones.

Bill Jones, all in a four-way shoot-off to win the recent Victoria trap championship and last Sunday he annexed the upper Island trap crown at Courtenay.

The wind was tricky, almost at gale proportions, but Jones succeeded in posting a 96x100 score.

Veterans of the clay pigeon sport admire the Vancouver shot. "He's quick as a flash and gets 'em before the wind has a chance to change their course," one old-timer said. At Courtenay Jones' record over the 100-bird course was 24-24-23-25. His nearest rival was Jim Robertson, Vancouver, one of B.C.'s top performers in the scattergun ranks. His score was 93x100.

Island division of the B.C. Game Department has taken steps to catch anyone who takes a doe deer other than from the Sayward Forest area (north of Campbell River) during the three-day period of Nov. 28-30. During those three days female deer will be legal targets in that area—and that area only on Vancouver Island.

"Now we realize that some people will try and 'sneak' a doe through from some other area than Sayward district, but we have a plan that will defeat that," said Inspector George Stevenson, Island boss of the game department.

"Every doe that is taken out of the Sayward district will be inspected by our biologists. We will have every road covered—and certain markings will be made on them.

"If any does are found in vehicles farther down the Island that do not have these markings, there will be court action," the inspector asserted.

Fred DeWitt, Empress Hotel staff, caught some of the first coho of the year on a bucket fly at Cowichan Bay this week. He was fishing off Separation Point. Fred went out after she had reeled in a limit catch of coho there. He got two.

Roger Monteith has published a two-page pamphlet on Island hunting dates for 1953-54 that will save a lot of people from having to read through the game regulations booklet.

Seasons are:

Deer, bucks only over one year—Sept. 15 to Nov. 30; daily limit one, limit for season 2.

Does (over one year old), Nov. 28-30—in Sayward Forest area only. One allowed per hunter for three days.

Blue Grouse—Sept. 15 to Oct. 31. Daily bag limit six, of which two may be blue grouse. Season limit 24, including willow. On the island no one shall have in his possession at one time more than two blue grouse.

Pigeons (band-tailed)—Sept. 5-30. Daily bag limit 10, season limit 50. Willow Grouse—Oct. 24-Nov. 15. Daily limit two, season limit 24. No more than two-day limit in possession at any one time.

Pheasant (cock birds only)—Oct. 24, Nov. 22. Daily limit two, season 10. Ducks (except eider)—Oct. 24-Jan. 11. Daily limit eight (one of which may be a wood duck) in the aggregate of all kinds. Season limit 100 in the aggregate.

Wilson Snipe—Oct. 24-Nov. 22. Daily limit eight, for the season 20. Black Brant—Dec. 12 to Feb. 28. Daily limit five in the aggregate, season limit 25 in the aggregate.

Geese—Oct. 24-Jan. 11. Daily limit five in the aggregate. Season limit 25 in the aggregate.

Aggregate refers to brand and game of all kinds.

Inspector Stevenson, following an up-island trip last week, says available reports indicate the blue grouse supply is favorable in Cowichan Lake area and Campbell River-Sayward country. He said the birds are bigger in the Cowichan area than in the districts farther up-island. Buck deer supply is pretty healthy in Cowichan and Sooke districts, also in the Campbell River-Sayward area. A wonderful crop of salal berries is expected to make grouse shooting the best in years.

Canadian Netters Enjoy Brief Moment of Glory

BROOKLINE, Mass. (CP)—For just a while Thursday the two lone Canadians in the United States doubles tennis tournament threatened to pull off the biggest upset of the competition.

Lorne Main and Paul Willey of Vancouver, entering the third round, ran right into the U.S. Davis Cup hopes, Wimbledon singles titlist Vic Seixas and Tony Trabert of Cincinnati, and promptly dispatched the vaunted Americans 8-6 in the first set.

Their triumph was short-lived, however, as Seixas, still suffering from a wrenched right knee, and Trabert settled down to eliminate the Canadians in three straight 6-1, 6-4, 6-1. Seixas' injury left the U.S. players a bracket behind other leading competitors.

The dreams Lewis Hoad and Ken Rosewall, Australia's Davis Cup aces, had of becoming the first to win all five of the world's major doubles titles were rudely shattered by Straight Clark of Pasadena, Calif., and Hal Burrows of Charlottesville, Va., after more than three hours of rugged competition.

Already winners of the Australian, British, French and Italian doubles titles this year, Hoad and Rosewall, both 18, were forced to surrender, 5-7, 14-12, 18-16, 9-7, in their quarter-finals engagements with their lightly-regarded U.S. rivals.

Broncs Pare Indians' Wil Lead

The Spokane Indians still topped Western International Baseball League standings Friday but thanks to Bill Brenner and his fast-rising Lewiston Broncs their first-place margin was down to a slim one-half game.

Brenner, Lewiston's pitcher-manager, tamed the Indians with six hits Thursday night as the Broncs made it three straight in the series, 5-1. Salem, meanwhile, clubbed Tri-City 9-5 and moved to within three percentage points of the Indians.

In other games, Wenatchee downed Yakima 7-5 and Vancouver subdued Calgary 11-6.

Two of the six hits given up by Brenner at Lewiston were successive sixth inning doubles by Eddie Murphy and Jimmy Brown. They accounted for Spokane's only run as Brenner racked up his 18th win against 10 losses.

At Salem, Gene Roenspie recorded his 17th win against three defeats in turning back Tri-City's Braves.

Battle Royal Features Mat Program

There was plenty of action on promoter Ken Williams' weekly mat card at Memorial Arena Thursday night.

Claire Robinson and Al Friddle started the evening with Robinson taking a one-fall decision over Friddle.

Following Robinson's victory six grapplers—Robinson, Johnny Demchuk, Angelo Poffo, Al Szasz, The Ram and Ivan Kamaroff—entered the ring in a battle royal.

Through this event Kamaroff and Robinson were matched in the main, Demchuk and Poffo in the semi-main and The Ram and Al Szasz in a special event.

Kamaroff took two straight falls from Robinson to win the main event. Demchuk won the semi-main when Angelo Poffo was unable to continue in the third fall and The Ram was disqualified in his match with Szasz.

Upset Marks Horseshoe Championships

Howard Curling and Art Hollingsworth chalked up two victories each in the city singles horseshoe pitching tournament as play opened at the Mason Street grounds Thursday.

Curling came up with the major upset of the evening when he defeated defending champion Roy Jago.

Jago, holder of the John A. Worthington Cup, won his second match from Henry Saboe.

Hollingsworth and Curling also hold the lead in the open doubles competition, having posted five consecutive victories.

Play in both competitions is scheduled to continue Sunday.

Trim Students Fosters Lead Series

Joe Fosters took a one-game lead in their best-of-five Senior B Men's Softball League series Thursday night when they captured a 7-3 decision from Chinese Students at Heywood Avenue.

Norm Nichol went the route for Fosters to collect the victory, giving up six hits, losing his shutout in the eighth inning when Students staged a belated rally.

Veteran Lloyd Jones was tagged with the loss. He gave up a single run in the second inning and four in the third, on three hits, one walk and an error.

After Fosters scored single runs in the fifth and seventh innings, Jones was replaced by Ed Dempster in the eighth.

Students got two of their runs in the eighth on Jones' triple and one in the ninth on two singles and an infield error.

The clubs meet in the second game tonight at Heywood Avenue at 6:30 and in the third game Sunday at 2:30.

Hits No Help Without Runs, Esks Show Tyees

Edmonton 3, Tyees 4

Victoria Tyees have been revelling in a symphony of base hits recently but all they can compose is sad dirges.

Wednesday night they rapped 18 base hits but still lost a 19-16 run-fest to Calgary Stampede.

Thursday night they pounded out 14 base hits against Edmonton Eskimos. But the Esks, who got only eight hits, snuck off with an 8-4 victory. It was the third loss for the Tyees in the first four games of the present prairie road trip.

Tyees clipped Edmonton's control specialist Ray McNulty for 12 singles and two doubles but never got more than three blows in one inning. McNulty's control was near perfect as he failed to walk a man and wiggled out of trouble neatly as Tyees got hits off him in every inning but the second.

BOTTLES LOSERS

Losing pitcher was Bill Bottler who gave up seven runs on seven hits in six innings. He walked six and struck out four. Edmonton got to Bottler for three runs in the third inning on three walks, a single and two long flies.

Singles by Bob Moniz, Don Pries and Granny Gladstone and Milt Martin's outfield out gave Victoria two in the fourth but Edmonton scored once in the fourth, twice in the fifth and once in each of the sixth and seventh innings.

Bottler went out in favor of a pinch-hitter in Tyees' two-run seventh inning and Berlyn Hodges finished up.

Tyees met Edmonton in a single game tonight and a Saturday double-header, and meet Vancouver Caps in a three-game series at Vancouver starting Monday.

BETWEEN TIMES

By MONTE ROBERTS

Welcome home, Caddy—all is forgiven

I am glad the tourists who were reported to have seen our sea serpent are from Texas.

Being from Texas, where everything is the most, they were able to state with conviction that Caddy is "longer than two Cadillacs."

Had the tourists been from some less enlightened, progressive and wealthy state, they might have credited Caddy with being only longer than two Austins.

The fact Caddy was not seen by any of the residents of 10 mile point is not surprising.

Caddy does not waste his time showing off for the benefit of year-round residents.

His job is to entertain tourists.

Under the "Hairdressers" division of the morning paper's classified pages appears the following:

ALL KINDS OF HEDGES PRUNED

Probably some new branch of the hairdressing business.

Mrs. C. G. Goater, Taylor Street, writes to ask how come I missed the innovation in nurses' uniforms at Royal Jubilee Hospital.

She points out The Times reported, as of last Saturday: "Nurses wear nothing below their elbows."

Okay for summer, Mrs. Goater admits, but when winter comes...

The same lady notes Penny Saver has discovered a wonderful pipe—it will never have a soggy bottom.

"Now," she says, "if only Penny Saver could discover something similar in babies, what a boon it would be for the busy mother."

Not unexpectedly, I have heard from a cat-lover, who apparently didn't like the suggestion printed here earlier this week to the effect that cats should be privileged to pay license fees, same as dogs.

This anonymous cat-lover sends me a post card on which is printed Ella Wheeler Wilcox's poem "The Beggar Cat."

Perhaps you have encountered it—if not, the first stanza will convey the idea.

"Poor little beggar cat, hollow-eyed and gaunt,
Creeping down the alley-way like a ghost of want,
Kicked and beat by thoughtless boys, bent on cruel play,
What a sorry life you lead, whether night or day!"

Across the face of the card, my correspondent has written angrily: "Have you no pity?"

Sure, I have pity, I pity the poor kitty with no license to call her own.

Maybe if cats who are owned by people were licensed, the fees could be used to keep the cats not owned by people out of the alley-ways.

Value of stolen property in Victoria during July was $2,867. During the same month city police recovered $902 of the stolen articles, but point out that since then they have recovered more of the loot. Lost property value was listed at $453, of which $371 worth was located.

Saanich School Board No. 63 is advertising for a secretary-treasurer following the resignation of Mrs. K. N. Sparks, who has served the board in that capacity for a number of years.

Final approval of the 1953-54 Greater Victoria Community Chest budget was made today at a noon meeting of the campaign committee at the Pacific Club. But the target was not disclosed.

The budget was passed on Thursday by the board of directors, said Community Chest president, Ralph B. Mathews, and awaited final approval at today's weekly campaign meeting.

The campaign of the Community Chest for funds to support the charitable, health and welfare services of its 16-member Red Feather agencies for 1953-54 will be conducted throughout the Greater Victoria area Oct. 1-16.

Chairman of the campaign committee is J. Courtney Hadcock.

This year's campaign marks a change from previous all-out one-night drives.

The success of this year's campaign would add great impetus to the movement to bring about a united appeal by all local and national charitable health and welfare organizations operating in this area, Mr. Mathews felt.

Mr. Wright said he could find no precedent in the annals of the history of Victoria in the present situation.

"I can't make a recommendation," Mr. Wright said. "It would be construed as telling Mr. Wright what he should or should not do. Mr. Wright must decide that for himself."

In the meantime of five Aldermen available for comment only Ald. Arthur Dowell gave a definite statement.

"I don't think he should be given leave of absence," he said. "If he wants to leave and take

The B.C. Power Commission has hired H. G. Acres and Company, hydro engineers, to carry out a thorough survey of the Whatsan power development on Lower Arrow Lake which was inundated by two mud slides last week, S. R. Weston, commission chairman, said today.

The slides, which severely damaged the power house and destroyed the switching station, caused "several hundred thousand dollars' loss."

The survey will start as soon as the company, which is one of the top hydro engineering firms in Canada, can get men out here from eastern Canada.

The engineering firm will survey the damage and recommend remedial measures.

One of the big jobs will be to determine if any more slides are likely to occur, and if so, what can be done to guard against them.

Mr. Weston's statement followed on the heels of Thursday's announcement by Premier Bennett that there would be an "independent look" into the Whatsan situation.

Seafront Residents Out on Limb: Hint Doubt of 'Caddy' Legend

By PETE LOUDON

The list of people who confess to never having seen Caddy, Victoria's well-publicized sea monster was lengthened by the names of 14 Ten Mile Point residents this morning.

George I. Warren, Chamber of Commerce managing secretary, hints at a "civic loyalty" test. But the fearless 14 spoke up, though in hushed tones, and in defiance of the "Keep Caddy Capering Club."

The Ten Mile Pointers were sought out following reports that Caddy had made an appearance 50 yards offshore in their neighborhood Thursday night.

Testimonies in a morning newspaper asserted that American tourists, James Mahaffey and his wife, from Texas and San Pedro visitor, Orville K. Crossett, had watched Caddy just before dusk.

Unfortunately, Mr. Crossett, who was carrying a loaded movie camera at the time, forgot to take pictures and so missed out on the Times' standing offer of $200 for a photo. None of the tourists revealed Victoria addresses.

A tongue-in-cheek canvass of 14 Ten Mile Point householders who live on three sides of the scenic promontory was made today. The shore-dwellers were told that Caddy was said to have appeared 200 yards out, had splashed toward the rocks and finally submerged within 50 yards of the beach.

They were also quoted a line in the story published which said "... the report was one of several brought and phoned."

Although Mr. Mahaffey had declared the beast or fish to be "... longer than two Cadillacs," none of those interviewed was able to corroborate the account.

No one knew anyone who had phoned in an account. A check with Royal Victoria Yacht Club guests of the evening also yielded a blank.

No hostmen had reported seeing the phenomenon from the depths.

Here is what White Rock, McAnally and Phyllis Street residents had to say:

"If Caddy had appeared for long enough to cover a 150-yard surface cruise, someone would have called us to see it, surely. The news would have swept the neighborhood."

"I have lived on the point for 30 years. I have often seen three sea lions swimming in a row. Perhaps that is what the tourists saw."

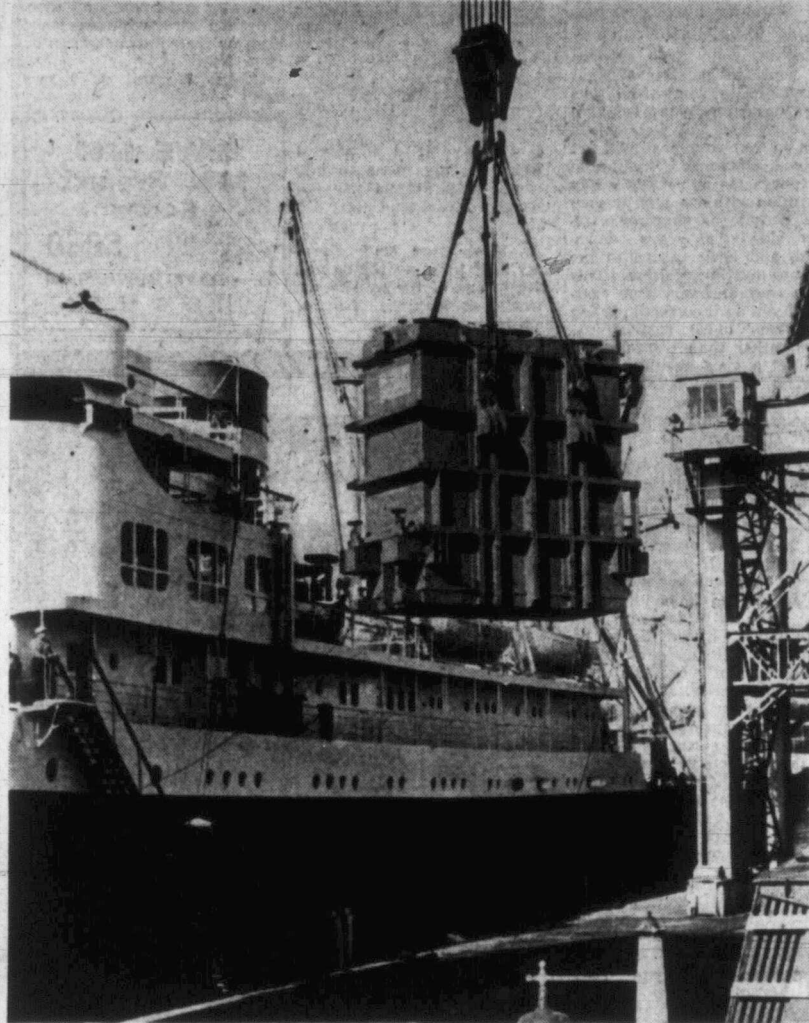

"I thought I heard a funny noise just after dusk last night ... between a bark and a cough ... like sea lions and killer whales make sometimes."

"There may have been sea lions or porpoises off the point last night. I was up twice to look at the water."

"We live right on the water's edge. If anything passes we see it. There was nothing Thursday night that might be mistaken for a sea monster."

"We were sitting on our patio until dark, facing the sea and we saw absolutely nothing."

Drydock crane required for heavy hoist.

VICTIM OF WAR

New Name Lucky for Ill-Fated Freighter

There's a new life ahead for the Holland-America Lines' passenger-freight vessel Dondedyk, which called at Victoria today.

The Dondedyk started out in 1929 as the Delfdyk but encountered troubles both during and after the Second World War. She lay in Rotterdam harbor when the war broke out and there suffered a direct hit from a German bomber which put her out of commission until the war's end.

Following repairs after the war she met with a magnetic mine in the North Sea which blew up the engine room and left her a wreck.

That was the end of the Delfdyk. But clever shipbuilders went to work, added 20 feet to the bow, provided luxury accommodation for up to 52 passengers, and when their work

Vets' Hospital Manager Quits For New Job

Two-war veteran Edward George (Ted) Drage, manager of the Victoria Veterans' Hospital, is leaving the hospital on Sept. 14 to take another job.

"I've enjoyed being manager of this hospital since it was opened. The patients have always been good people and you couldn't get a finer staff," said Mr. Drage today.

He has been a member of the Canadian Order of Foresters for 31 years and will take over the job as manager of all field men of the order in the province.

Asked why he was leaving, Mr. Drage said, "well, it means a bigger pay cheque." He will continue to live in Victoria.

There is a probability his job will grow to include the branches of the order in Alberta.

"He is one of the finest men in this area and we are sorry to see him go," said Stan Okell, who will retire as assistant district administrator for DVA in this area in October.

Mr. Drage, now 53, served in the First World War in France with the 8th Battalion, CEF. He served as a private. In the Second World War he also enlisted as a private but joined the army medical corps and finished up a major.

Irene Byatt Sings Over CBU Tonight

Irene Byatt, well-known Victoria contralto, will be guest artist at 9:30 p.m. today when CBC Vancouver concert orchestra broadcasts over the Trans-Canada network and CBU.

On the same station's matinee at 2:30 p.m. readings from the works of the late Emily Carr, Victoria author and artist, are heard daily, Monday through Friday. Selections are from her book "Klee-Wyck," a story of Canadian Indians; "The Book of Small," and "The House of All Sorts."

A-G SILENT ON DOUK THREAT

Attorney General Robert Bonner declined comment today on Vancouver reports that a new flare-up in Doukhobor acts of violence is expected when school starts Sept. 8.

The blowup is anticipated, the report said, because of the government's announced policy that the School Act will be rigidly enforced on Doukhobors. It is a part of the government's overall policy working towards a solution to the Doukhobor problem.

The Freedomsites are strongly opposed to sending their children to school.

Benefit of Lowered Rail Rates Doubted

New Kootenay-Coast Schedule May Have Adverse Effect Here

By E. McLEAN

No paeans of praise are being raised by Greater Victoria businessmen as they dig deeply (and skeptically) into details of the "substantial reductions" in freight rates between West Coast centres, including Victoria, and Kootenay cities, announced Thursday afternoon by CPR officials at Montreal.

Scheduled to come into effect Sept. 1, the new West Coast-Kootenay tariff, according to the CPR's announcement, will:

1. Include a new rate schedule on less-than-carload shipments of general merchandise and will include, without extra charge, protective services, such as heating and refrigeration.

2. Create new weight-classes (40,000 and 50,000 pounds) on carload grocery shipments at rates that also will include protective services. New rate for the existing 20,000 and 30,000-pound minimums will include delivery charges.

3. Reduce by 20 to 36 cents per hundredweight existing charges on carlots of hardware (a railway-tariff term that embraces many products beyond the common definition of "hardware").

Impetus was given to this effort by unconfirmed reports the proposed tariff maintains the existing 36 cents per hundredweight differential between Vancouver and Victoria schedules of rates.

If this is so, the reduction insofar as Victoria shippers is concerned, would be considerably less than granted their Vancouver competitors. In fact, it might even mean the new rate in some categories would be higher than the rate now paid by Victoria shippers.

Until a copy of this proposed tariff reaches Victoria, shippers and the Chamber of Commerce freight rates committee are unwilling to comment specifically.

Meanwhile attempts are being made to obtain detailed information from the higher echelon of CPR freight officials.

BLUNT QUERY

Chamber of Commerce telegraphed Mr. Arkle overnight asking bluntly whether Vancouver-Victoria equality would be granted in the new tariff, and reminding him the return of parity was vital to Victoria's commercial well-being.

Mr. Arkle had not replied by press time today.

Chamber of Commerce freight rates committee may be called together early next week, when it is expected the new tariff will be available for study.

If the complete schedules of rates should reveal what some shippers suspect—that the tariff is less favorable to Victoria than to Vancouver shippers—then it is likely that an all-out attempt will be made to have the Victoria rates revised before the effective date, Sept. 1.

Fort Victoria Pioneer Passes

Memories of pioneer days in Victoria 90 years ago faded today with the death of Mrs. Rosa Anne Scales, who landed here when she was three years old, in 1861.

Mrs. Scales died at her home in Vancouver Wednesday at 95. She often recalled that because she was the only red-headed girl in the tiny settlement that is now Victoria, Indians were afraid of her.

She remembered, too, when the first ship equipped with an electric light plant docked in Victoria and the inhabitants flocked to the waterfront to see the "magic lights in the bottles."

She was unexpectedly welcomed by Canada's senior naval officer, Vice-Admiral E. R. Mainguy, commander of naval services, Ottawa.

Admiral Mainguy is in Victoria on an unofficial visit after touring far northern defense bases from Labrador to Alaska.

The 745 officers and men of the "Big O" were welcomed at dockside by more than 2,000 relatives and friends. Ontario's crew had many tales to tell of their long voyage—the ship left here in April—but seemed proudest of the result of Thursday night's exercise off the Oregon and Washington coast.

The Esquimalt-based training frigates Beacon Hill and Antigonish were sent out to "intercept" the big cruiser, while Ontario was ordered to slip by the defending screen if possible.

At the midnight deadline of the exercise, the signal was received by Ontario: "You have evaded the defending screen."

At one point during the three-hour evasive exercise, Ontario's masthead lookouts could see the masts of the defending frigates, but the smaller ships failed to spot the cruiser.

Vice-Admiral Mainguy was first to be piped aboard and pay his compliments to the commanding officer, Capt. D. L. Raymond, when the cruiser came alongside at pier 52, HMCS Naden. In the official party were Rear-Admiral J. C. Ells, Flag Officer, Pacific Command, and Capt. Paul D. Taylor, newly-appointed chief of staff to the FOPC.

Capt. Raymond reported a trouble-free voyage, with a great deal of time devoted to training exercises at sea, especially on the eastward trip in company with other Canadian ships.

Admiral Mainguy will be in Victoria until Sunday, but no official functions are on his agenda. His northern trip, by RCAF planes, was his first inspection tour of the far north since taking over command of Canada's naval forces.

LAW-BREAKERS HEADING FOR RECORD IN FINES

By ROY THORSEN

If the people who get caught breaking the law just keep up the same pace, and the men who do the catching stay on the job, Victoria will achieve the questionable distinction of a new, all-time record for fines this year.

To the end of July, $40,089 had been paid into court. Total for the whole of 1952 was $66,518.

July fines totaled $6,348, maintaining the higher monthly average.

Biggest contributors were violators of the Motor Vehicles Act's numerous sections. From 145 drivers in July came revenue of $2,580.

Most numerous offenders were in the over-parking panel—1,479 breaking this and other city by-laws and paying $2,488 into the court.

Victorians should have good weather for the week-end, says weatherman William Mackie. Little change is expected.

A storm 600 miles off the Washington coast will move toward Victoria but should pass to the south and dampen the coasts of Oregon and Washington.

Today's forecast is for sunny weather with clouds forming overnight and clearing by noon Saturday.

The low tonight will be 55 with a high Saturday of 70 degrees. Winds will be from the southwest, about 15 miles per hour.

The Vancouver Forest District fire hazard is "moderate"—better than usual for this time of year, B.C. Forest Service officials said today.

No new fires have been reported in the district, which includes Vancouver Island, for 24 hours. There are only seven blazes, none serious, still burning.

Only trouble spot in B.C. is the Nelson Forest District, where 32 lightning fires have broken out.

There is a total of 152 fires

ASK THE TIMES

Q.—You told of the 1921 Canadian five-cent piece being worth quite a premium now. Is the 1921 Canadian 50-cent piece worth much in addition to its original face value?—J. S.

A.—It is said by collectors to be the most valuable of the 50-cent coins. It went out of issue in 1921 and there are stated to be fewer than a dozen whose whereabouts are known.

Q.—Will you please tell me if there is any way to prevent slimy green matter from growing in a lily pool? We have a few fish and other plants as well as lilies, but cannot keep the green stuff down. — Mrs. W. S. G.

A.—Copper sulphate (blue vitriol) is the most approved poison. Care must be taken, as an excessive quantity may destroy goldfish or aquatic plants as well as the algae. A ratio of not more than 1/10 of a dram to 555 gallons of water (16 drams equal one ounce) is recommended by the horticultural branch of the B.C. department of agriculture.

Let's Have a Corn Roast!
Corn Is Cheaper This Week

By PENNY SAVER

A corn roast... that's it! If you're planning on throwing a party, why not? Just buy a lot of corn cobs and let your guests go to it. With plenty of butter, salt and pepper around, the refreshment problem is solved and everyone is bound to agree that they enjoyed the feast much more than if you'd spent hours making finicky pinwheel sandwiches! The joy of the whole thing is that corn is so cheaply priced now. Just last week they sold at two cobs for 25 cents, but now they've dropped down to six cobs for 35 cents! C'mon, let's give the gang a big shin-dig!

Another vegetable that's slid 'way down in price is the vegetable marrow... only 6 cents a pound now! Green onions are cheaper too. They'll give you two bunches now, instead of one, for your nickel. Cabbage has gone up a few cents and is priced at 8 cents a pound. Other vegetables, however, seem to be satisfied with last week's prices. Carrots are 10 cents a bunch, scarlet runner and string beans are 15 cents a pound, turnips are 10 cents a pound, pears are 23 cents a pound, mushrooms are 80 cents a pound, hot house tomatoes are 20 cents a pound and celery is 20 cents a head.

Transparent apples must be more plentiful now, because they are certainly coming down in price! This week the tag is 25 cents for three pounds. Combined with blackberries in a pie, you can't beat them. You'll save yourself quite a few pennies, too, for the blackberries have also taken a slide in price. They are just 18 cents a basket now. Malaga grapes are down 5 cents this week to settle at 30 cents a pound, which, by the way, is also the price of the black Ribier grapes and the smaller, seedless green grapes.

Raspberries and loganberries are still around, though I have a feeling that the raspas are getting scarce. At any rate the price has been upped to 28 cents a basket. Loganas are still at 18 cents a basket. Blueberries are 40 cents a basket. Bing cherries are still available, too... 40 cents a pound. Honeydew melons are 35 cents each, cantaloupes are two for 39 cents and prune plums are 20 cents a pound.

Happy shopping!

Children Should Insist
Firmly, Gently on Rights

By ELIZABETH B. HURLOCK, PhD

One way of getting what you want in the world is by fighting for it. The way you fight, however, determines whether you get it and keep the respect of others or whether you come out the winner only in the question as to who set out to get. How to train children in this is the question asked by a grandmother:

Hurlock

(Q) "Both my son and daughter want their kids to fight and take their part which, I believe, teaches them to lie, steal, and even become murderers. Two of my grandsons rule their parents' home and the older one rules the neighborhood also. While playing, this older child decides he wants whatever the other child is playing with. So he hits him and takes the toy. Then the younger fights with the older to take it from him. Both remember what their mom and dad say, 'Fight for your rights.' I say this is a bad way to raise kids. Do you agree with me?"

(A) I certainly do agree with your heartily. No child can make a place for himself in any group in civilized society if his method of getting what he wants is fighting with his fists. He may succeed while he is still young enough to play with toys but when he begins to put away childish things, he will have to mend his ways or find himself an outcast from society.

Asking for things politely but firmly brings as good results as fist fighting and it does not antagonize. Why not tell your grandsons about this approach and encourage them to use it? Once they discover that it works they will be willing to use it.

You will also have to encourage the parents to alter their methods of rearing their children. Try to convince them that getting along with other people is just as important for children as standing up for their rights. This can never be done by the tactics they are encouraging.

Locks Remain
Short for Fall

PARIS (Reuters)—Short hair will continue to be the fashion in Paris during the coming autumn season.

The latest cut, replacing the poodle or short cut curled all over the head, is the corolla which features a smooth flat crown giving a neat cap effect.

Ends are shaped and thinned, and often swirled to one side rather than turned up or under. Bangs which became a vogue in the U.S. when Mrs. Eisenhower became the first lady, are growing in popularity in Paris. Especially favored here is the half bang or windswept fringe over the temples.

All-Around Good Exercise?
Try This for Body Tone

Q—"Please give me an exercise which is mild and just generally good for one so far as posture and tone and deep breathing. I do not have time for much but want one anyway to do daily, sort of a 'waking up' exercise."

A—Do the following exercise: Stand erect with your hips pulled under, your tummy pulled in, your spine straight and your feet pointing straight ahead. Raise your arms sideways-upward as you rise high on your toes. Lift your chin a little so that your head will not protrude forward. Breathe in as your arms move upward to a position with one arm by each ear. Exhale as your arms return slowly sideways-downward, and heels return to the floor to starting position. This is an easy and very fine exercise if you do it correctly. When the arms move sideways-upward rather than front-upward you get a good shoulder blade exercise. If you take time for the stretch you will find this exercise relaxing and also a waist slimmer.

Q—"I would like very much to have some exercises for reducing the knees."

A—Knees slim down naturally if you are overweight and lose pounds. If your weight is correct and your knees are still too fat do the following: Massage the fatty deposits with your hands. Knead the fat between your fingers and thumb and the heel of your hand. Also do this exercise: Lie on the floor on your stomach. Bend the left knee, bringing the lower left leg back as far as possible as though you were trying to spank yourself with your foot. As the left leg straightens bend the right leg. One leg straightens and returns to the floor as the other bends. This is a quick change.

Q—"When I was in high school I had a severe case of acne and in the course of everything I was given X-ray treatments. Now my face is scarred. I cannot afford plastic surgery. I wonder if there is some kind of makeup which will help cover the scars?"

A—Covermark will hide any pinkness or redness, and may even help fill in the indentations.

Q—"Please tell me what is wrong with my figure. I am 18 years old, five feet three inches tall and weigh 115 pounds."

A—You are just exactly right.

Q—"I have tried at several places near my home to buy cosmetic wax. Could you tell me where I can send away for it?"

A—Most large drug stores carry it. If those nearby do not, write to one of the well-known cosmetic companies. Most of them have it.

Ruth Jeffrey, Gordon E. Cox United In Sunset Ceremony Atop Mt. Tolmie

The home of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Jeffrey, 1751 Cedar Hill Road, Mt. Tolmie, was the scene of a pretty wedding, Thursday evening, when at sunset, their only daughter, Ruth Charlotte, exchanged vows with Gordon Edward Cox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Cox, 1462 Fort Street.

Mr. H. L. Hopkins, assisted by Rev. L. G. Blackmore, uncle of the groom, performed the ceremony amid a floral setting of pastel gladioli and sweet peas. After the ceremony Mrs. D. Dobson sang "The King of Love My Shepherd Is."

Entering the large living room on the arm of her father to the strains of Wagner's Wedding March, played by Miss Phyllis Hick, the bride was radiant in her white wedding gown, fashioned with hip-length bodice of lace over tulle, from which billowed a double skirt of net. The fingertip veil was held in place by a fitted cap edged with orange blossoms. Her only jewelry was a hand-carved ivory rosebud centred with gold nuggets, the gift of the groom, and she carried a bouquet of gardenias and white heather.

Miss Sheila Sinnamon was the bride's only attendant, gowning in pale pink satin with green net bolero and overskirt. She carried a bouquet of deep pink carnations. Albert Cox, brother of the groom, was best man and ushers were Richard Cox, brother of the groom; Peter Jeffrey, brother of the bride; Ken Weismiller and Grant Weismiller.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the home. A two-tier wedding cake topped with pink sweet peas and fern centred the bridal table. Mother of the bride wore a dress of dusky pink sheer over tulle with navy accessories and gardenia corsage. A powder blue sheer dress over deep blue tulle was worn by the groom's mother with grey accessories and pale pink carnation corsage. John Thompson proposed the toast to the bride.

Guests from out-of-town were Mrs. Charles M. Fraser, Mrs.

D. Dobson, Miss Jackie Donaldson, Miss Julia Lindsay, from Vancouver and Rev. and Mrs. L. G. Blackmore, Cowichan.

The couple left for Westview, B.C., on a honeymoon camping expedition. For traveling, Mrs. Cox chose a two-piece clove-colored suit with champagne accessories and corsage of apricot gladioli. Mr. and Mrs. Cox will live in Vancouver.

St. Mary's Church Scene of Wedding

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace with lily point sleeves, modified Queen Anne collar and sweetheart neckline complemented by a small fleur de lis brooch of pearls, the gift of the groom. A shoulder-length veil of illusion net misted from her coronet headdress and she carried a bouquet of red and white roses.

Sister of the bride, Miss Megan Scott, Portland, Ore., was maid of honor, and sister of the groom, Miss Tuppy Palmer, was bridesmaid. Attendants were gowned alike in pale yellow embroidered organza with coronet headdresses and bouquets of deep red gladioli. Keith Palmer was best man for his brother and ushers were Michael Hamersley and brother of the bride, Blayne Scott.

A tea hour shower was given recently by Mrs. Norman Loughheed, Jr., and Mrs. Alfred Heaslip, at the Beach Drive home of Mrs. Norman Loughheed, Sr., to honor Miss June Rawlinson, September bride-elect. Shakespeare Theatre for West Doubtful STRATFORD, Ont. (CP)—Setting up a Shakespearean theatre in Western Canada is only a "very doubtful possibility," H. A. Shoalter, president of Stratford Shakespearean Festival Foundation, said Thursday.

Dr. E. A. Corbett of Toronto, president of the Canada Foundation and a founder of Banff School of Fine Arts, yesterday discussed the idea of a second theatre Wednesday with Mr. Shoalter. It had been suggested that the Stratford theatre might be taken out West after the Stratford run.

"Considering the high cost of transportation, it seems a better idea to extend the season here in Stratford," Mr. Shoalter said.

Next year the festival committee wanted to expand and include a school of drama, he added.

Londoners Face Little Hope of Erasing Fog

LONDON (CP)—Dr. H. Franks, health ministry official, told a health conference that London's only hope of eradicating its fog problem lies in shutting all its factories, dousing its open fires and diverting fuel from nearby heavy factories.

The black fogs of last winter were blamed for 1,000 deaths.

TWO for the SHOW

By PHIL LEE
AA (Censor Class) A (Don't Miss)
BB (Worthwhile) CC (For Busy Days) D (To not to time)

(B) "THE GIRL WHO HAD EVERYTHING" (Capitol)
—Even the most ardent admirer of fine actress Elizabeth Taylor will discover within the first thirty minutes of the film that "The Girl Who Had Everything" didn't have a story. Neither, for that matter, did her co-stars veteran thespian William Powell, Fernando Lamas or Gig Young.

Now this verdict may appear rather rough on Adela Rogers St. Johns who wrote the original story. If so, our regrets, for Miss St. Johns has written some passable novels in her day. Nonetheless, the moral of the story is, roughly, that good girls should play with good boys from her own set if she doesn't want her lily-white fingers scorched. This moral is a good one when expounded and explained within a time limit of say 20 minutes at the outside. When it is stretched to an hour-and-a-half it becomes tedious, unnecessary and boring.

The story, in brief: Jean Latimer (Taylor) beautiful and spirited daughter of famous criminal lawyer, Steve Latimer (Powell) who has brought her up to believe that she can do whatever she wishes so long as she is willing to pay the cost, falls in love with Victor Ramondi (Lamas) a notorious racketeer. She breaks off her engagement to Vance Court (Young), a man of her own class, and, disregarding her father's pleas, runs off with Ramondi. Here it is that hard-drinking daddy plays the ace that M-G-M's director Richard ("Ivanhoe") Thorpe has been keeping up his sleeve for a.m. What a pity to utilize artists of the calibre of Miss Taylor on an overworked theme such as this. One of the most talented screen stars of the day, Miss Taylor, unforgettable beauty of "A Place in the Sun," "Ivanhoe" and others, merits much worthier story-challenges. And as for William Powell, hero of our more youthful days in such delights as "My Man Godfrey," the "Thin Man" series, "Life With Father," and many, many other top-flight hits, made us feel sad in this one. It was much too much like watching a gallant race horse reduced to hauling the neighborhood ice wagon.

Before signing off... In the background of the picture is James Whitmore playing the part of gangster "Chico" Menlow. We've been watching this Whitmore man for some time now in the minor roles. When are they going to bring him up? It's high time and he'll shine brightly in some starring role.

As for Fernando the Lamas—well...

AFL-CIO Unity Moves Closer

WASHINGTON (UP)—Prospects for AFL and CIO unity brightened today as President David J. McDonald of the CIO United Steelworkers denied rumors he was planning a third big federation with John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers.

The executive board, the CIO's top governing body, heard McDonald's denial as it approved a no-raiding pact with the AFL, the first step in a series of labor leaders hope will lead to ultimate merger of the giant unions. The board urged endorsement of the pact by the CIO national convention in November.

Musical Cars Not His Game

PICHER, Okla. (AP)—Police Chief Gene Crockett, seeing a suspicious-looking car turn into an alley while he was watching for narcotics runners, jumped into another officer's car and gave chase Wednesday. Losing the quarry, he returned to find his own car stolen.

Ont. Truckers' Strike Enters Second Month

TORONTO (BUP)—The stormy strike of 1,500 Ontario truckers entered its second month today with no signs of an early settlement as union-company talks were postponed until next week.

Walmer Transport Co. of Hamilton, one of 36 firms involved in the dispute, said it had applied to the Ontario Labor Relations Board for decertification of the AFL Teamsters Union as bargaining agent.

At least two other firms from Brantford and Walkerton joined Walmer in asking the board to declare the union's strike action illegal against companies where agreements have not expired yet.

The talks in Labor Minister Charles Daley's office adjourned until Tuesday morning after a stalemated overtime session Thursday night. The firms held out for either arbitration in the dispute or settlement on the basis of an agreement reached earlier with the non-striking Toronto local. The teamsters held out for acceptance of its own wage formula.

Cuba Slashes Sugar Crop to Maintain Price

WINNIPEG, Man. (BUP)—A Cuban sugar executive said today production in his country had been voluntarily slashed by 2,000,000 tons this year to maintain the world sugar market.

J. G. Salinas, of the Cuba Cane Company, the world's largest producer of cane sugar, said in an interview the 1953 output had been cut back to 5,000,000 tons "to save a disastrous drop in prices everywhere."

Salinas, who is on his way home to Havana after vacationing in the Canadian Rockies, said the Cuban delegation to the recent 17-nation sugar congress in London, England, had recommended all sugar-producing countries reduce their output also.

"We don't want to create any shortage," he emphasized. "But over-production would mean a slump in world prices. At the moment, prices are just right in relation to production costs, but our difficulty is that new labor legislation has given cane-field workers in Cuba the highest salaries on record, and we have to maintain the world price level to afford these salaries."

Salinas, travelling with his wife, said that the United States, Britain and Canada were his company's best customers, taking a major proportion of its 80,000-ton annual output.

"Canada is a good buyer, and a very good friend of Cuba," he added. "It is a country enjoying great respect and liking in the Caribbean."

Three other Thunderjets were reported to have landed at Keflavik airfield, Iceland, to refuel and proceed to Lakenheath. Earlier, eight Thunderjets from Turner Field landed in French Morocco, just 10 miles shorter than the hop from Turner to Lakenheath.

HOME CHRISTMAS?

Athabaskan's Far East Tour To Continue

Reports that the time of service in Korean waters for three Canadian destroyers now on duty there might be drastically curtailed with the signing of a truce, brought no confirmation from naval authorities here today.

The navy's chief of staff, Capt. Paul Taylor, said there is no word as to return orders for HMCS Huron, Haida and Athabaskan.

Athabaskan is the only one of the three based at Esquimalt. The others call Halifax their home.

Orders for the Canadian vessels would come from the United Nations command through Canadian headquarters.

As far as the navy is concerned, Athabaskan won't be here much before Christmas.

USAF Jets Make 4,485-Mile Ocean Flight Non-Stop

LAKEHEAD, England (AP)—Seventeen F-84 Thunderjet fighters touched down at the United States air base here Thursday night after a 4,485-mile non-stop flight, refueled in the air en route, from Turner Field, Ga.

Three other Thunderjets were reported to have landed at Keflavik airfield, Iceland, to refuel and proceed to Lakenheath.

Earlier, eight Thunderjets from Turner Field landed in French Morocco, just 10 miles shorter than the hop from Turner to Lakenheath.

CHALK RIVER PILE BACK AT WORK SOON

OTTAWA (BUP)—The atomic pile at Chalk River, Ont., knocked out by a leak of radioactivity last December, will be reactivated within a few weeks, it was announced here by Dr. C. J. MacKenzie, president of Atomic Energy of Canada, Ltd.

The pile has been decontaminated and is being rebuilt and probably will go back into operation early in October, he said.

PORT TALBOT, Wales (AP)—The River Ferndwyll spilled over its banks after torrential rain early Thursday flooded more than 200 houses and halted production at the nearby $180,000,000 Margam Steel Works, third largest in the world.

Ontario Secreds To Name Leader At Early Parley

TORONTO (BUP)—The Social Credit party, undaunted by its failure to win a single federal seat in Ontario, planned today to hold a provincial convention as soon as possible.

A meeting of representatives from seven ridings said the convention should elect a provincial leader and divide Ontario into sections for better organization.

Mussolini's Daughter Visits South America

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP)—Edda Ciano, daughter of Benito Mussolini, arrived here today aboard the liner Augustus en route to Buenos Aires to visit her brother, Vittorio. Countess Ciano said she plans to return to Sao Paulo later and visit her daughter.

Ont. Liberal Candidate Granted Judicial Recount

TORONTO (BUP)—The seat election fight to win York-Humber riding will go into round three Monday morning, backers of defeated Liberal candidate Ken Thompson announced today.

Alex Halliwell, Thompson's campaign manager, said an appeal for a judicial recount had been granted. It will be heard before a county judge.

Newspaper columnist Margaret Aitken, the Conservative candidate, officially became the fourth woman in the House of Commons when she captured the riding by 78 votes in a retabulation on Monday.

B.C. Man Travels 6,000 Miles to Wed U.K. Girl

LONDON (CP)—Kenneth Birley, former RCAF pilot, traveled 6,000 miles from his home in Port St. John, B.C., to marry his English sweetheart, 28-year-old Marion Henshaw. They met at a wartime dance in Britain and their romance developed by mail, each writing nearly 400 letters. They plan to live in Canada.

Only convertible that outsells

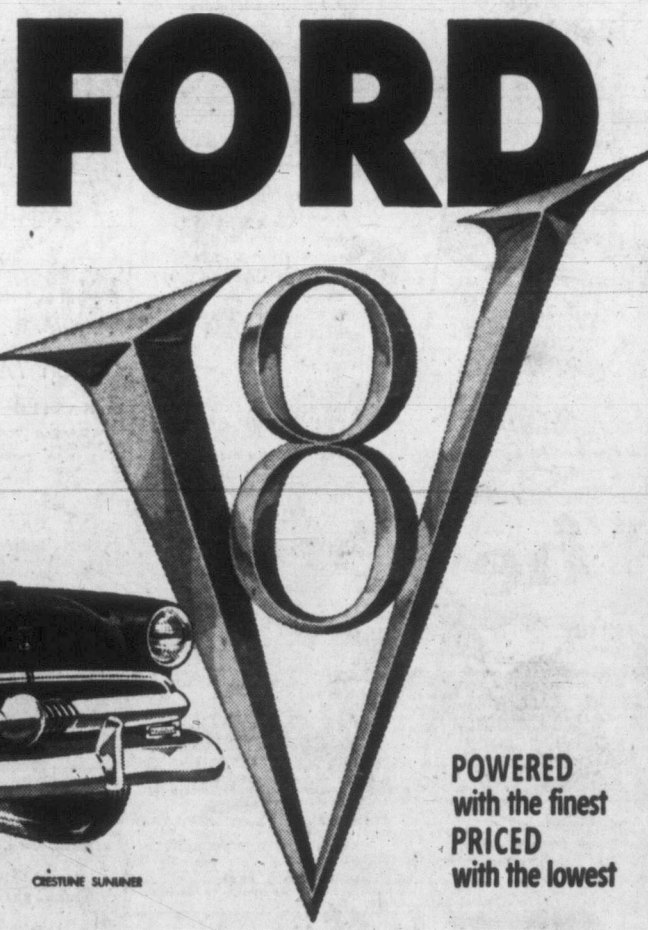

What is it that makes the beautiful Ford Sunliner Canada's best-selling convertible? Is it its smoother V-8 power? (Could be—because nothing less than the best in performance, and truly up-to-date design, can satisfy modern-minded buyers!) Is it the stylish beauty, the solid craftsmanship? (Could be—because that fully automatic Breezeway top is designed for the open air, yet built for snug comfort in any weather!) Is it the way the Sunliner makes even roughest roads feel smooth? (Could be—because along with the famed Ford "Wonder Ride", this car has springs specially tailored to its weight.) Is it driving ease? (Could be—because you have your choice of three fine drives, Fordomatic* or Over-drive* or Synchro-Silent Shift.)

Any one of these things could be your reason for choosing a Sunliner. But the big reason why Canadians have made Ford the largest-selling convertible is the same reason why more and more buyers are changing to Ford, regardless of model choice. Ford gives more "Worth More" features... features which people know make any Ford worth more when they buy it, worth more when they sell it.

*Fordomatic Drive, Overdrive, and white sidewall tires optional at extra cost.

THE DOCTOR SAYS
By EDWIN JORDAN, MD

Keeping Skin Away From Metal Seems Only Thing if Allergic

The skin is a tough part of the anatomy, but all of us have trouble with it at one time or another. Some people, like the writer of today's first letter, however, have a real problem.

Q.—My skin is extremely allergic to all metals, causing itchy pimples and watery irritations. What is the cause? I have been told that my system is too alkaline. Is it true that such systems are inclined towards cancer? I have had this for the last 15 years and wonder what can be done to correct it.

—Mrs. H. M.

A.—There is no reason to believe that an "alkaline" system, whatever that is, has anything to do with your allergy to metals. There is also no reason to feel that your allergy to metals inclines you toward the development of cancer. The only procedure which would be likely to help in such an unusual and severe case is to keep your skin out of contact with metals. If it should be necessary to handle metals which cause your skin trouble, you might be able to avoid difficulty by wearing rubber or plastic gloves at the time.

Q.—My sister's little boy, age four, has a rupture. She has tried putting a truss on him, but it is aggravating and seems to do more harm than good. Is he likely to outgrow the rupture or is surgery necessary?—Mrs. M. F.

A.—I should think that wearing a truss by a small boy would be exceedingly difficult and would interfere with his activity and perhaps affect him psychologically. The results of adequately performed surgery for a rupture of this sort are so good that in all probability an operation would be best, subject, of course, to the opinion of the consulting surgeon.

Q.—I am expecting a baby soon. I have a little girl six years old, and how am I to tell her where the baby comes from and all the details that children ask? I know one should always tell a child the truth, but I am at a loss as far as this is concerned.—Mrs. L.

A.—Answer your little girl's questions in simple terms which she can understand, but do not try to explain anything which she does not ask, or which she cannot understand. She will be satisfied with very simple replies, and certainly at the age of six it is not necessary to go into complicated details of anatomy or physiology.

Q.—I am a girl in my teens and have a weak ankle. I turn it and fall a lot. Would it do any good to see a foot specialist?—Miss V.

A.—It would be advisable to see your physician who could be sure that you wear the right kind of shoes for a while and perhaps might want to put on an elastic bandage or some other support to prevent your turning your ankle so often. This should allow it to strengthen, which it probably will not do if you keep on turning it often.

Wrestler Tuffy Sees 'Monster'

NEW HAMBURG, Ont. (CP)—Tuffy the wrestler saw Nithy the Monster today. Nithy ske-daddled.

Tuffy—Tuffy Truesdale who makes a living wrestling alligators—said he caught a glimpse of the "monster" as he stood on the banks of the Nith River with Police Chief George Thomas and four captive alligators.

It was the first time anyone has reported seeing Nithy, whose tracks near the river bank have been sending shivers down the spines of New Hamburg residents for weeks.

Tuffy says Nithy probably is an alligator. That's why he brought along his four 'gators in the hope of luring Nithy into captivity.

Tuffy's alligators, supposed to excite the "monster" with grunts and entice it to the river bank, were "restless" today because Nithy was around.

Chief Thomas said he is sure the pair of eyes he saw in the river were those of Nithy. He saw Nithy's body too. "It was about four feet long."

The chief said tracks were sighted on the bank this morning and added:

"Tuffy says those tracks are an alligator's, and no creature

Problem of Clerk-MLA Plagues City Hall

By AILEEN CAMPBELL

The dispute as to whether newly-elected Victoria MLA Percy Wright can serve in the Legislature and still hold his $4,200-a-year job as assistant city clerk appeared today to have reached an impasse.

After Mayor Claude Harrison, in a letter to Mr. Wright Thursday said the city solicitor ruled it was not legally possible for the city to grant leave of absence for Mr. Wright to attend the Legislative session next month, city hall sources said this was tantamount to an ultimatum to the new MLA to choose between his member's job and his permanent city hall employment.

DECLINES COMMENT

Mr. Wright declined to say whether he regards this as his position, or whether he will appeal to City Council to over-ride the ruling of the mayor and his advisers, City Solicitor Arthur Patton and City Manager Cecil Wyatt.

"I am not pressing the council," was Mr. Wright's only comment.

Unless a further move is made in the meantime the issue may remain unresolved until September 15 when Mr. Wright will decide to attend the opening of the Legislature or to attend to his City Hall duties.

For a session of the Legislature the MLAs get a $3,000 indemnity.

An absence of authority to grant the requested leave rather than a prohibition appears in City Solicitor Patton's report to Mr. Wyatt.

NO AUTHORITY

Mr. Patton said he had searched the Municipal Act and the Civic Service By-law and was "unable to find any authority whereby leave of absence for a person to take another job and accept remuneration is authorized in any manner whatsoever." The subject is not specified in the act.

The only statute referred to was Section 58, sub-section (3) of the Municipal Act, which authorizes council to make, alter or repeal by-laws "for regulating the appointment and removal of its officers and employees, and the duties, conduct and remuneration of such officers and employees, etc."

"Leave of absence" however is covered in the civic service by-law No. 3596, Section 12 reads:

COUNCIL APPROVED

"Any employee desiring leave of absence without pay shall be granted such leave in so far as the regular operation of the department will permit, provided reasonable notice is given to the head of the department. Such leave of absence shall not exceed what, in the opinion of the municipal manager, is a reasonable period of time."

Frank Hunter, city clerk and Mr. Wright's department head, recommended leave be granted. He said he opposed the principle of civic employees running for office but since council gave its approval on request of the mayor April 23, knowing Mr. Wright might be elected, it should grant him leave to take his seat.

The mayor in his letter asked council to "grant its approval to Mr. Wright's participation as

10-CENT CUP OF COFFEE THREATENED

MONTREAL (BUP)—The dime cup of coffee may soon follow the nickel variety into oblivion.

President Cecil Millbourn of the Canadian Restaurant Association said here that frost damage to young coffee trees in Brazil would cause a shortage next year and that prices had been hiked by growers by about 10 per cent.

"This will practically wipe out the margin of profit on a dime cup of coffee," he said.

Sugar Fortune Heir Beats Up Actress Wife

NEWPORT BEACH, Calif. (UP)—Former actress Kay Williams was reported in serious condition today as the result of a savage beating allegedly at the hands of her former husband, sugar fortune heir Adolph B. Spreckels II.

Spreckels, 41, was arrested Thursday on charges of felonious assault with intent to do bodily harm shortly after Miss Williams was taken to Presbyterian Hospital with possible broken ribs, head injuries and severe bruises on her arms and legs. Film actress Dorothy Lamour was listed as a key witness on the complaint against the multimillionaire.

Police said the alleged fight began early Thursday when Miss Williams went to Spreckels' home to visit their two children, Joan, 2½, and Adolph III, 4. She has custody of the children, but at the time, they were visiting their father.

Police said the sugar heir was accused of knocking down his ex-wife and then taking off her shoe and beating her on the head "so hard he broke the heel off." Spreckels weighs 190 pounds, Miss Williams 120.

NOT TREATED BRUTALLY

Canucks Mum on PW Experiences

VANCOUVER (BUP)—Two Canadian soldiers freed by the Communists under the Korean truce returned from the Far East early today and reported they had been held in solitary confinement after capture and forced to attend Red indoctrination classes.

Canadian army intelligence officers, however, all but "gagged" Gnr. Orval Jenkins of Hamilton and Toronto and Pte. Thomas Rothwell of Dundas, Ont., when reporters asked whether any Canadians had fallen for the Communist line and remained in North Korea.

The question was put to Gnr. Jenkins and, after a glance at the intelligence officers who attended the interview, replied: "I don't think I'm allowed to answer that question."

Both ex-prisoners said their solitary confinement was an ordeal but said they had not been treated brutally.

They said other Allied captives received "more severe

TRIUMPHANT SHAH ARRIVES IN IRAQ

Tehran Decked Gaily; Mossadegh Lonely

BAGHDAD, Iraq (UP)—Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi of Iran arrived from Rome in a chartered airliner today and prepared to make his triumphal entry to Tehran tomorrow after his brief exile.

Iraqi Crown Prince Abdullah led a welcoming party of officials when the silver-blue Royal Dutch Constellation landed after its 1,659-mile flight from Rome's Ciampino airport.

The Shah stood rigid at attention while an Iraqi band played his country's national anthem.

AWAITS TRIAL

TEHRAN, Iran (UP)—Lonely old Mohammed Mossadegh, ousted as premier by the Shah's supporters, languished in his pink pajamas and bathrobe in a suite in the Officers' Club awaiting possible trial for treason.

Premier Gen. Fazollah Zahedi was in firm control and his tanks and troops stood guard at street corners in Tehran and throughout the country.

Found Guilty

In Halifax today Cmdr. Richard Chenoweth, of Montreal, was found guilty of three charges arising from the grounding of the Canadian destroyer 'Irons' off Korea July 12. The court martial sentenced him to receive a "severe reprimand." Cmdr. Chenoweth was found guilty of failing to insure that his watch-keeping officers, Lieut. Cmdr. T. J. Thomas, Dartmouth, N.S., and Lieut. G. H. Emerson, Bathurst, N.B., carried out their required duties. The court martial of Thomas and Emerson began today.

French Workers Pour Back as Strike Ends

PARIS (UP)—The united front of French labor, which for 17 days had defied the economic reforms program of Premier Joseph Laniel with a crippling series of nation-wide strikes, cracked wide open today.

Laborers, by the tens of thousands, began streaming back to work in nationalized industries and civil services in defiance of Communist pleas for a continuation of the work stoppages enforced by 2,000,000 workers. At their peak, last week, the strikes affected 4,000,000 men.

The collapse of the strike followed an agreement, reached at dawn today, between non-Communist union leaders and representatives of Premier Laniel's cabinet.

Communist union bosses shouted "sell-out," but their voices were ignored.

Industries outside the government sphere—metallurgical, textile, chemical and building—were still crippled to varying degrees by slowdowns and token strikes.

Observers saw the agreement reached Thursday night, put on an overwhelming show of strength to discourage threatened riots by the nationalist supporters of deposed Sultan Sidi Mohammed Ben Youssef.

Gay, Smiling Princess Marks 23rd Birthday

BALLATER, Scotland (UP)—A radiant Princess Margaret received a spray of white orchids for her 23rd birthday today but kept secret the name of her admirer.

The box of orchids was among many packages that arrived for the princess at Balmoral Castle. She was reported smiling and happy after receiving gifts and congratulations.

Meanwhile in Brussels, handsome Group-Capt. Peter Townsend "celebrated" the birthday of Princess Margaret by lunching alone in a small Brussels hotel.

The war ace whose name has been linked romantically with that of the princess was "not available for comment" at the British embassy where he is now air attaché.

Other embassy officials said they did not know whether Townsend had sent Margaret a present or birthday greetings.

New Sultan Takes Over Morocco

RABAT, French Morocco (UP)—Morocco's snuff-taking new pro-French sultan, formally took the throne today in the ancient religious capital of Fez before more than 1,000 Moroccan and French notables.

New Sultan Sidi Mohammed Moulay Ben Arafat, 64, a wealthy scholarly landowner who enjoys taking snuff, received homage first at the dazzling mosque and palace in Marrakech, where he led prayers of the Moslem faithful in Morocco's biggest religious festival, Aid-El-Kebir.

Then he went to Fez, where he was formally enthroned.

France, amid the festivities, put on an overwhelming show of strength to discourage threatened riots by the nationalist supporters of deposed Sultan Sidi Mohammed Ben Youssef.
